Bloomfield Surf Club Causes Excitement As Building Nears

By ELIZABETH YATES
North Adams Correspondent

NORTH ADAMS—North Adams residents are buzzing with excitement over plans for the Bloomfield Surf Club that have now become a reality.

The swim club on Square Lake road, just west of Opdyke, will include a Olympic sized L-shaped pool with two diving boards and a spray pool for the small fry. The plans also include a sun deck surrounding the pool, a covered patio, contemporary bath house and a snack bar. There will also be a parking lot that will be screened off when the landscaping is completed.

The project will begin taking shape this month and will be completed in June for this summer's enjoyment. Membership is still open to interested families until April 15. Additional information may be obtained through the temporary officers, Walter Zippler of Warwick Drive, Dean Warchow of Warwick Drive, Robert Infanger of Henley Drive, Walter Kingsley of Alveston Road.

THE SHAWNEE TRIBE of the Indian Guides has advanced to Warriors and are now known as the Shawnee Warriors. The oldest tribesman, Mike Oviatt, became the tribe's young chief. Next in line is the medicine man, Chuck Route, and the wampum keeper is Bill Bee. Every six months each tribesman climbs the mythical totem pole giving each by a chance to become the young chief of the tribe.

Last weekend the Warriors and their dads spent the weekend living in the dorms and swimming in the enclosed pool at Greenfold Village. They also toured the village while on the grounds.

On the outing were William and Chuck Route, Chuck and Ricky Amann, John and Steve Ball, George, Mathew and Bill Bee, Edward and Craig Brown, Robert and Greg Clark, Robert and Randy Montgomery, Lyle and Mike Oviatt, Robert and Mike Pittale, Don and Steve Young, all of Eastover school area.

THE OSAGE GARDEN Club held its April dessert meeting at the Lenox Road home of Mrs. Goralewski on Monday afternoon. Speaking at an informal question and answer period on "Early Spring Gardening" were Mrs. O. W. Faulds of South Boulevard and Mrs. N. D. Reiss of Windrush Drive.

Mrs. Donald Richardson of Pine Hill Drive hosted 35 members of the North Woodward Alumnae Association of Kappa Kappa Gamma at a luncheon in her home on Tuesday. The alumnae April meeting followed the luncheon.

On Saturday evening the Donald Richardson's invited 40 friends in for cocktails before the group departed for the Birmingham Athletic Club dinner-dance.

The Bruce Craig family of W. Orchard Hill Drive have put their ski equipment away for another year after their last weekend trip to Otsego. There, they took to the hills with other Birmingham-Bloomfield families.

The Craig children, Charlie and Cynthia, each won second place medals in their age group in the slalom races at Otsego, bringing the ski season to a glorious finish for them.

THE RICHARD KUNNING'S of Greenree Road have just returned home from two weeks in Florida. Kunning, a member of the Birmingham and Detroit Gun Clubs, took his collection of guns along and participated in the trap shooting tournaments throughout the state. He was a runner up in the Florida State Championship held in Tampa this year. While Kunning was engrossed in his hobby, Mrs. Kunning relaxed in the sun.

They are looking forward to a trip to the Northwest this summer where Kunning will take part in other trap shooting tournaments.

HOME AGAIN and sporting a deep golden tan after a winter in Jamaica and Florida is Mrs. Ottilie Bigelow of North Adams Road. Joining her during the Christmas holiday season were friends, Miss Ramona Wright of Dearborn and Mrs. Gene Goud-wais of New London, Conn. While in Jamaica Mrs. Bigelow visited Kingston, Ochos Rios and Montego Bay before departing for Bal Harbor for a month.

On Friday, friends joined Mrs. Bigelow for luncheon and a fashion show at Pine Lake Country Club. In the group were Mrs. J. Gordon Richie, and Mrs. John Gonda of Dearborn, Mrs. Jack Hannah of Birmingham, The Melvin Grants of Chatham, Can. also arrived on Friday to spend the weekend with Mrs. B.

MRS. ROBERT WASON of Laneragan Drive spent a recent week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gifford, in Boston, N.J. While there, she also visited the Paul Taylors in Wayne, former neighbors on Laneragan Drive.

Members of Stoneycroft Hills Golf Club gathered at Devon Gables on Thursday for a get acquainted luncheon and fashion show. Area residents who modeled the sport, afternoon and evening fashions of the Don Thomas Sport House. The newest hair styles on the models will be created by Bernard's. A special feature will be the latest in wigs which has the club bubbling with enthusiasm.

Planning the event are chairman, Mrs. Brady Brenton of Walnut Hill Drive and co-chairman, Mrs. Robert Opie and Mrs. Martin Edger of Royal Oak.

Charing Cross Hamlet neighbors gathered at Kingsley Inn for their annual cocktail hour, dinner and dancing on Saturday evening. Planning the popular events were chairman, Mrs. Paul Carrick of Queens Way Drive, and Mrs. Donald Foreman of Charing Way Drive.

ENTHUSIASTIC Easter parents have been trekking to the school on Tuesday evenings for the five week First Aid Course sponsored by the American Red Cross. Instructor, Floyd Bunt, teacher at Cranbrook, has been teaching the large group the newest form of mouth to mouth respiration.

This same First Aid Course will be held again later this spring for all those interested parents who missed the current course. Mrs. Thomas Clark of North Adams road may be contacted for details on the course.
