Feb. 25—To Mr. and Mrs. John W. Jickling (Barbara Fairman of Brooklyn, N. Y.) of Birmingham, a daughter, Amy Carland.

LATHRUP After 18 years residence in Lathrup, Cordelia and Bill Hayes are on their way to take up

Long-Time Village Residents Heading for Florida Retirement

casual retirement living in West Palm Beach, Fla. "They talked about it a lot," their friends and neighbors are saying, "but we never really thought they would leave Lathrup."

Cordelia was one of Lathrup's first Girl Scout leaders, a member of the Lathrup Players, an organizer of the Lathrup Woman's golf league. She was an active member of the Lathrup Woman's Club and the Lathrup Choralettes. When the Hayes finally announced Bill's retirement and the sale of their Lathrup home, parties began to fill the calendar.

CORDELIA'S canasta group met at the home of Mrs. Wendell Holmes to present Cordelia with a gold canasta charm for her bracelet.

There was a handkerchief party at the home of Mrs. Fred Purdy, for "those weepy farewells."

Thirty women filed into the home of Mrs. Webster Owen one sunny afternoon last week to say their goodbyes. While the Lathrup Choralettes sang for her, the women presented Cordelia with a baby-blue golf bag for fun in the Florida sun.

TEN COUPLES surprised both the Hayes with a going away party on March 31. It was a pot-luck dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Stanley, followed by dancing—especially the twist. The Hayes were presented with a key chain and wallet for Bill and a bracelet for Cordelia. Mrs. Stanley started the party rolling, she was amply assisted by friends in the block.

Bill had his "day of glory" on a recent Sunday afternoon at a recent Sunday afternoon at Northwood Inn when a "for men only" retirement party was held for him.

CRANBROOK VILLAGE

Stashed and stored for the coming seasons are the skis and poles of the Frank Roller family of Cranbrook. The Rollers enjoyed a winter vacation this year at Boyne Mountain and good skiing weekends found them with daughters Karen, 9, and Marianne, 8, frolicking at Mt. Frederic, between Gaylord and Grayling.

Mrs. Eugene J. Melvane of Rock Creek Drive was hostess last Friday to a group of her church circle ladies for luncheon and an afternoon of bridge. A number of Mrs. Melvane's paintings will be on display at the Lathrup Players' art show on April 27-28, in conjunction with the Players' presentation of "The House on the Cliff" at Community Congregational Church.

LATHRUP

Mrs. James McCree of 17592 Glenwood, Lathrup, was hostess to the North Suburban Alpha Omicron Pi Alumnae in her home on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Louis Trudell assisted.

Mrs. Carl Holdampf, outgoing president presided at installation of the new officers. They are Mrs. Melvin Allen, president; Mrs. Louis Trudell, vice president; Mrs. James McCree, secretary; Mrs. John Kantz, treasurer.

New committee chairmen installed were Mrs. Joseph Addonick, publicity; Mrs. George Davidson, membership; Mrs. Charles Thumser, ways and means; Mrs. Rupert Wells, historian; and Mrs. Carl Holdampf, Pan-Hellenic Delegate.

Following installation of officers, Mrs. Melvin Allen presented a fraternity education program. Dessert and coffee was served at the conclusion of the program.

CRANBROOK VILLAGE

Cranbrook ladies can refuse to become golf widows this summer by participating in a golf league being formed for beginners and experienced players. Every Thursday morning, beginning May 3, the league will meet at North Hills course. There will be lessons for beginners by the North Hills pro and fun for all. Those interested are asked to contact Sue Scofield.

LATHRUP

Recent guests of the E. D. Mansfields of Quentin Drive were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Morton of Kalamazoo and their son and daughter, Susan and Thomas. Mrs. Morton and Mrs. Mansfield were school chums "way back when" at Pinebrook School for Girls at Glen Arbor.

The Mansfield and Morton families joined forces on a sightseeing trip around Detroit, selecting special points of interest for the children.

Form up your squares for dancing Saturday night! The Village Square Dance Club meets for dinner and dancing at Birney school at 6:30 p.m. Dinner will be planned by Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Ladniez, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Wes Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. Al Stein and the Dick Andersons.

BEEHIVE ACTIVITIES are scheduled for Fellowship Hall of Community Congregational Church this evening when every member of the Lathrup Players has been called upon to come in work clothes prepared to paint scenery. While George Batson's "House on the Cliff" is in rehearsal on the stage, volunteer painters will prepare flats for the April 27-28 production.

Mrs. Glenn Parison and Mrs. O. A. Bush will be in charge of an art show to be held in conjunction with the play. New works by Southfield and Lathrup artists will be shown.

Charis Club Plans Projects

The Charis Club of Birmingham held its March meeting at the home of Mrs. John Geovjian of Yorkshire.

Mrs. Vincent Hayes of Charing Way and Mrs. Floyd Griffith of Yorkshire attended as new members.

Plans were made for a party in May for the disturbed children of Pilgrim's Project. Arrangements were also started for the adoption of a "foster child" from overseas.

Spode Brown Fleur-de-Lis

Since the time of the Roman Empress Theodora (500 A.D.), the Fleur-de-Lis has been a symbol of royalty. After the fall of Napoleon in 1815 it was used extensively in England as a decorative motif in furniture, textiles and wall-paper. Spode artists adapted it to dinnerware on the beautiful Chelsea shape. A conventional design, Fleur-de-Lis is correct with Traditional, Regency or Modern.
