

BLOOMFIELD NORTH

Bloomfield Villagers Entertain After Players Performance

By GLORIA JESSUP
Bloomfield N. Correspondent

BLOOMFIELD NORTH
Mr. and Mrs. Howard Thomsen of Ardmore Drive, Bloomfield Village, entertained 40 guests after the March 30 presentation of "Five Finger Exercise" by the Bloomfield Village Players.

Gathering after the opening night performance (Mrs. Thomsen had the female lead) were members of the cast, the director and friends.

At the April Conant PTO meeting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith were elected president; Mr. and Mrs. Brad Radlike, president-elect; Mr. and Mrs. William Carpenter, recording secretary; Mr. and Mrs. Don Pike, treasurer; and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Mansky, corresponding secretary.

Committee members include the Don Kitchens, membership; the Gene Sparrows, hospitality; the Ray Waldrens, program; and Mr. and Mrs. Dand DeGraff, recreation.

Mrs. Gene Losier was appointed a teacher representative. "Islands of the World" was the March theme of Cub Scout pack 1022.

Den 1 represented Hawaii; Den 2, the West Indies. Australia was the island chosen by Den 3 and Den 4 pantomimed Japanese music.

KNOB HILL

Mrs. Russell Thomas gave a tea recently in her Hoot Tower Drive home to honor Mrs. Arthur B. Connors, newcomer to Van Ness Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Lavins of Van Ness Drive are leaving today to make their home in Bettendorf, Iowa. The Lavins, formerly of LaCrosse, Wis., moved to Knob Hill last fall.

Houseguests of the Raymond J. Schmits of Van Ness Drive have been Mrs. Schmit's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Goffinet, and her aunt, Mrs. Angela Buesing, all of Haddonfield, N. J. Highlights of the trip included granddaughter Diane's first Communion, a visit to Greenfield Village, and a tour of Cranbrook. Mr. and Mrs. F. Hamilton Oakes of Menlow Park, Calif. arrived on Tuesday for a visit with their son, daughter-in-law and family, the Robert C. Oakes of Mark Hopkins Drive.

The Oakes will go to Boston to visit their parents before returning a freighter for their round trip to San Francisco.

LOCHLEA

Mr. and Mrs. Russell McBride of Inwood Circle returned home recently after three weeks at Pompano Beach, Fla. They visited with the Gerold Carplies, Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Carl of Inwood Court and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. France of Kirkway.

LONE PINE HEIGHTS

Mrs. Frank Cantrill of Malibu Drive entertained three tables at dinner-bridge on a recent afternoon in honor of Mrs. Dugald Black, also of Malibu Drive. Mr. and Mrs. Black will be leaving the Birmingham area shortly.

LONE PINE HEIGHTS

Dr. and Mrs. O. K. Search of Whispering Pine Lane returned home recently after two-week vacation. They departed March 17 with the Mansel Willys of Malibu Drive and flew to Mexico City. Following a tour of Texas, they drove to Acapulco for a week before returning home.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Ben L. Rouse of 3850 Morningview Terrace, Bloomfield Village? The Rouse family, including Shirley, 11; Ben, 8 and Betsy, 6, have been residents of Birmingham for the past five years before building and moving into their new home last December. Mr. and Mrs. Rouse enjoy golf, swimming and bridge as their hobbies. Rouse is with the International Division of Burroughs.

The new residents of Glencoe Estates, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Brown? The Browns reside at 5848 Burnham Road. They moved to the Bloomfield Hills area from Cleveland after spending a year in Farmington. They are parents of Guy, 12, a student at Vaughn. Brown is state manager of Hanes Seamless Hose for Marks Brothers of Cleveland.

New Knob Hill residents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Froberg of 5324 Van Ness Drive? The Frobergs are former Birmingham residents. They have four children. They are Ann, 19, who attends the University of Colorado at Boulder; Jim, 15, a Bloomfield Hills High School student; and Marilyn, 11, and Bill, 8, at Conant. Froberg works for the Rinsheed-Mason Company.

The new residents of 5298 Van Ness Drive? They are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Connors, formerly of Sudbury, Mass. The Connors moved into their new home in Knob Hill about two weeks ago. The five Connor children are Cathleen, 11½; Susan, 10; Patricia, 9; Betsy, 8 and Bart, 3. Connors is distribution manager for Lincoln-Mercery. The Connors enjoy swimming as the family sport.

Doctors' Wives Plan Luncheon At Devon Gables

Presidents' Day luncheon for members and friends of the Detroit Osteopathic Hospital Auxiliary, will take place April 13 at Devon Gables. Being honored will be Mrs. Paul Trimmer of Bloomcrest Drive, Birmingham and Mrs. Stanley Turner of Meadowlake Road, Birmingham.

TWO fashion shows will highlight the afternoon's entertainment. The Jacqueline Shops will present the latest styles for spring. The interns and residents' wives will model unique creations which they have designed especially for this occasion.

Chairman of the event is Mrs. William G. Toy of Oak Park. Her co-chairman is Mrs. Robert C. Belf of Detroit.

An Albert Sheetz Bunny

You Can Color For Easter!*

OUR BUNNY had to find out what it was like to live in an egg shell! He found out it was a pleasant change to try something different for Easter. After all, bunnies like to try something new . . . and so do people.

This year, at Albert Sheetz candy stores, you can enjoy taste treats never before possible. Easter candies made with loving care and filled with the finest ingredients; every one a deliciously different taste thrill.

We mention only a few: Big Hollow Chocolate Eggs in Brown, White, Green and Pink; Big Chocolate Eggs filled with Fudge, Chocolate, Cream, Divinity or Fruits and Nuts; Chocolate Marshmallow Eggs; Solid Baby Chocolate Eggs; Baby Jelly Eggs; Colorful Cream Eggs; Panorama Eggs that you peek into; Do-It-Yourself Easter Baskets with all the trimmings; 72 Pound Chocolate Rabbit 3 Feet Tall (we call it an all day Rabbit!); Easter Baskets that become Easter Bonnets after the candy's a pleasant memory; Peel-Away Easter Novelties; Easter Carts filled with a wide variety of candies; Assorted Stuffed Animals for Tots to Teens. And, don't forget our flavorful 1, 2, 3 and 5 pound boxes of assorted Easter goodness for everyone on your list.

*Reprints of this ad, without any advertising, are available for the kiddies to paint or color. Just ask for yours at any Albert Sheetz candy store.

820 S. Woodward, Birmingham • Open Daily 10 to 9 • Thursday and Fridays 10 to 10 • Sundays 11 to 7
165 Pierce, Birmingham • Open Daily 10 to 6 • Thursday and Fridays 10 to 9 • Closed Sundays
17001 Kercheval at Notre Dame in Grosse Pointe . . . Our Newest Candy Store

Edward
THE NEWEST NAME IN LINGERIE Fashion
only at Julies
DIVINE LINGERIE
COUTURIER-DETAILS
From $40
to $125.

Julie with Froberg