AFS Festival
To Take Place
At Meadowbrook

The American Field Service Festival will be held this year at Meadow Brook Hall, home of Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson in Rochester, on May 5 from 1 to 5 p.m. Mrs. Arbie O. Thacker, chairman of the newly formed Michigan chapter of A.F.S., will have a reception in her Lowell Court home on April 15 to honor the two honorary chairmen of the festival, Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson and Mrs. George W. Romney, and also Herbert G. Gardner, who is the new finance chairman of A.F.S.

The reception will include the Michigan Chapter board members and their husbands and A.F.S. foreign students, and is planned as an opportunity for all those interested in the program to become better acquainted.

Actress

for new and more adequate quarters for Boys' Ranch.

Miss Wyman is expected to head a long list of Detroit area celebrities who will attend the film premiere. She will be introduced and speak briefly.

The actress co-stars with Fred MacMurray in the Technicolor comedy-romance. It relates the adventures of a Terre Haute, Ind. family and their three children on their first European trip.

Tickets are available at all branches of First Federal Savings of Detroit, the Wayne-Oakland Bank of Royal Oak, and the Birmingham-Bloomfield Bank in Pontiac; tickets are at First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland.

Their Engagements Are Announced

Susan Wilson Sinclair (left), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Sinclair of Henrietta Ave., Birmingham, is engaged to Julian Elkin Beard, son of Mrs. Julian B. Beard, of Lexington, Ky., and the late Mr. Beard. The bride-elect attended Ohio Wesleyan, where she was a member of Delta Delta Delta, and was graduated from the University of Kentucky. A June 30 wedding is planned. Sarah Drinkwater Bates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill O. Bates of E. Long Lake Road, Bloomfield Hills, has set June 23 as the date of her marriage to George Edwin Smith of Denver, Col., son of Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Smith of Fort Collins, Col. Sarah is currently a freshman at Colorado Woman's College.

Moving Back FRANKLIN VILLAGE

Mr. and Mrs. Edward I. Nichols of Malvern, Pa. will return to Birmingham this week to take up permanent residency. They formerly lived on White Pine Drive.

By NITA HARD Franklin Correspondent

FRANKLIN
Franklin the 13th often forebodes catastrophe; the one this week is no exception. Three major community events have been planned independently by groups and anxious chairmen are wondering who will choose which.

The Franklin Couples Club, has scheduled a dinner-dance at the Edgewood Country Club and is hoping many will bring guests to make the occasion more treacy. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Baringer have lent moral support and will have a party of eight couples for the fun.

Arrangements have been handled by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sewell with assistance from Mr. and Mrs. Fred McNabb and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Froelich. A semi-formal affair with a smorgasbord cuisine and mixer dances should garner a fair share of Franklin adults.

The popular pancake supper planned annually by Boy Scout Troop 1011 will have strong support of families with children.

Stacks of sheats, light and fluffy, will be served at the Franklin Community Church from 6:30 until 8:30 p.m.

And then, of course, there's the second night Franklin Players performance of "Ladies of the Jury" at the Farmington Players Barn on 12 Mile Road. Show time for the three performances are 8:30 p.m.

EMIL BATES of Mountaintop

Three Big Events Scheduled For Villagers on Friday 13th

Record of their ten week jaunt, the group only got as far as Baghdad in the entire opening. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Carrin will be hosting the Franklin Cemetery Association and Auxiliary's annual joint meeting to-night with a pot-luck supper.

The Currins live on Captain's Lane and will be greeting guests at 6:30 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. Don Odles have spent a week with submarine son Don in Charleston. Young son is due to ship out for an extended period, so the visit had special meaning.

Five weeks in Florida netted Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Adams of N. Cromwell deep tars and priceless additions to their shell collection. Visiting with old U of M football friends on the west coast they made stops in Venice, Clearwater and Naples. While there Mrs. Adams made chronological history by finding a yellow sand (most of them are purple) shell. The local papers made quite a thing of her find. Also, while on the Isle of Morals, they caught sharks from an outdoor boat. Other parts of call on the long holiday were Key West and Ft. Lauderdale.

THE FRANKLIN GARDEN Club met Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Fischer on Wellington Road in Wood Creek Farms. Members included 'round the world with colored slides taken by Mr. and Mrs. C. D. McKay of Wood Creek. With 20 boxes of slides for a complete
