

Beverly School Parents to See Movie About First Year Student

By NORMA WHOLIHAN
Beverly Correspondent

BEVERLY HILLS—Last year three teachers from Beverly School planned and produced such an excellent movie covering the activities for the first year student that they have been asked to present it again this year. The faculty members responsible for this work were Mr. Frank Colpitta, speech correction teacher; Mrs. Rheaba Cope, visiting teacher and Miss Frances Curtin, health department.

The film will be shown Friday at the Kindergarten Roundup to mothers and children who will be five before Dec. 1. They may attend either the morning session beginning at 9 a.m. or in the afternoon starting at 1 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Wark Wetzell who were formerly residents of Birmingham and are now retired to Florida were guests of the William Rileys of Bedford last weekend.

The Marcel J. Duns of Pickwick Lane were not only the first residents, but are now the parents of the first baby in the new Huntley Subdivision. The christening was Sunday at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Church.

AN IMPORTANT meeting was held April 3 at the Beverly School for the room mothers who are helping to make the Blood Bank Drive, opening April 20 a success for Beverly Village.

The program included movies showing the need and great need for blood donations. Anyone wishing to make an appointment for this purpose should contact Mrs. Goodrich, who is assisting Mrs. Donald Hoexter.

The arrival of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fedosky of Chicago, had John Chris, Karen and Jim more than a little excited last week when their parents, the Robert Fedoskys of Birmingham were hosts to the senior Fedoskys.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Stuart of Buckingham were hosts at a dinner party Saturday for a prominent New York artist, William Smith, his wife and Kim and Kathryn who were their house-guests.

Dr. and Mrs. Maynard Bailey will be attending the Michigan State Dental Society Convention this month in Grand Rapids. They are looking forward to the Hawaiian Luau, a feature of the reception given in honor of state officers at the Peninsular Club.

The Ted Olsons of Locharbie invited friends in for cocktails before the Riverside Dance Club's party March 24 at the Birmingham Country Club.

Gathering at the Olson home were Mr. and Mrs. Ken Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Aldridge and Mr. and Mrs. John Thoms.

Charles D. Olson after attending the rushing teas has been accepted as a pledge of Chi Omega sorority at the University of Michigan.

The Beverly Hills Garden Club met April 4 at the home of Mrs. Robert McKee of 17186 Beechwood. Co-hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. David Raup, Mrs. Paul Stocker and Mrs. Henry Mika. After electing officers, a program "Share Your Hobbies" will include a display of china painting and other skills, also an auction of small objects such as plants, cookies and hand-work.

The West Beverly Hills Sewing Group met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Herbert Wyatt on Devonshire.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Maurer of Devonshire have sold their home and will be moving soon to Los Angeles. Maurer is with the Burroughs Corp. and has been transferred.

Recently Mr. and Mrs. A. Zimmerman of Riverside spent a long weekend at the Doral Country Club in Miami.

They flew down to meet their son James who is in the submarine branch of the Navy and was expected in Ft. Lauderdale. However, stormy weather delayed him and the Zimmermans had to return home without seeing their son. Zimmerman is planning another trip soon to see James.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Ashcraft have recently returned from Ft. Lauderdale, where they visited friends. They especially enjoyed their trip through the Smokies and picturesque Gatlinburg.

The West Beverly Hostess Club's Shamrock Luncheon on March 15 had a capacity attendance with the girls scurrying around setting up extra tables for the crowd. Mrs. Arthur Handren is committee chairman for the meeting today.

VALLEY WOODS—

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. McMasters of Bellevue Trail honored their son Thomas McMasters and his new bride at a reception for 200 guests. The newlyweds were married in Cincinnati and the groom's parents wanted all their friends to meet their brand new daughter-in-law.

The living room was turned into a charming cafe for the occasion, with ice-cream tables and chairs placed conveniently about the room for the comfort of the guests who were invited in two sections, with the younger ones staying on for dancing.

Lawrence Rubly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rubly of 14 Mile Road, has returned from three and a half years with an Army postal unit. Rubly was stationed in the Canal Zone and Wash. He will return to school in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Collie of Eastlady have returned from a 10-day vacation trip to Florida. They flew down to visit their parents Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Moore and Mrs. Murray Collie, then drove on to Miami to soak up some sun and enjoy the beaches.

MR. AND MRS. Murray Cotter of Locharbie brought their new baby daughter Paula-Lyn home from Beaumont on March 24. Waiting anxiously to greet her were Michael, 16; twins Leslie and Lindsay, 12; and Peter, 8 years, who were all delighted with their new sister.

Engaged Girls Continue To Make Social News

News of engagements continue to add to the local social scene, and recently Carol Lee Evans and Barbara Stewart Ynglingoff have added their names to the list of brides-elect.

Carol, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erskine W. Evans Jr., of Pembroke Road, Birmingham, is engaged to Warren Asher Risk II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren A. Risk of Warwick Drive, Beverly Hills.

Carol is a sophomore at Michigan State University and a member of Alpha Phi Sorority. Her fiancé, who attended Northwestern University, is recently back from six months' active duty with the United States Marine Corps.

The date of the wedding will be announced later.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT YINGLINGOFF of Coldwater, formerly of Franklin, announce the betrothal of their daughter—whom everyone here remembers as "Pixie"—to Ralph Lauren Livingston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hazen Livingston of Richmond, Ind.

Barbara was graduated from Birmingham High School and will receive her B.S. degree in Home Economics from Purdue University in June. She is a member of Alpha Xi Omega.

Ralph was graduated from Purdue in January and is now studying for his masters degree in Business Administration at Miami University.

A June 30 wedding is planned.

MISS EVANS

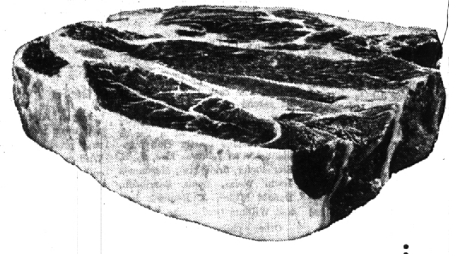

MISS YINGLINGOFF

Carol Edgar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Edgar of Birmingham was recently elected treasurer of Delta Zeta Sorority at Michigan State University, where she is a sophomore. Karen Altmanberger, also a member of Delta Zeta at MSU, has been elected president of the Child Development Club. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Altmanberger of Birmingham.

ON TOUR—Michael M. vonGuttenberg, 1562 Bates Street, Birmingham, has toured 11 Michigan cities this month with the Albion College Orchestra and Symphonic Band. He will return to classes Friday.

SECRETARY—Laura Ann Fitzpatrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Fitzpatrick, 3764 Shellmarr Lane, Bloomfield Hills, has been elected secretary of the Student Association at Marian College in Indianapolis. Laura Ann is a junior majoring in biology.
