

The Sun Shone on Alpha Chi Omegas

For the few hours that the sun turned a wintry day into spring last Saturday, it shone on alumnae and active members of Alpha Chi Omega Sorority who turned out to celebrate the group's annual State Day luncheon at Oakland Hills Country Club.

The North Woodward Suburban Alumnae Chapter were hostesses at the event which drew over 300 women.

Delegates were present from the active chapters at the University of Michigan, Michigan State University, Albion College, Western Michigan University and Central Michigan University, as well as from cities throughout the state.

Following luncheon, a musicale was given featuring the works of Edward MacDowell, of special interest since the MacDowell Star Colony in Peterborough, N. H., is a national philanthropy of the sorority.

Among those on hand to listen were (at left) Phyllis Beneicke, Valerie Voelker and Nancy Rouse, all of Birmingham. Mrs. John Neilson of Birmingham and Mrs. Celia Merrill Turner, of Bloomfield Hills, were among local musicians appearing on the program.

Club with their daughters, Nancy and Susan, both students at Bloomfield Country Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ahern have postponed their trip to Scottsdale, Ariz., until after the Easter Holiday, since son Owen will be home from Michigan State to spend spring vacation with them and his sister Janet. Before dining at the Club, they'll attend Mass at Holy Name.

No Excuse

If Birmingham women aren't the best dressed in the whole United States, it isn't for lack of style shows!

And, ladies, there's another one in the offing—this one at Birmingham Country Club April 26, with clothes by Glen of Michigan (So if you're sports-minded, a must) and hairdos (wigs as well as for-real) by Leon of Grosse Pointe.

Mrs. George Jaakki is chairman of this opening spring party, assisted by Club social chairman Mrs. Paul Thorlak-son; Mrs. Tom Wright and Mrs. John Daniels.

Add fun to the afternoon: Audience participation. From among the three hundred guests expected, some will be pegged to come up-front and have their hair styled on the spot.

Club members who will be modeling include Mrs. Ted Chick, Mrs. John Duncan, Mrs. Carl Merolli, Mrs. James Murphy, Mrs. Tobin Rote, Mrs. William Shaw and Mrs. David Worth.
