

Kern Lake Garden Club Hosts Successful 'Get Acquainted' Fete

By ELIZABETH YATES
North Adams Correspondent

With so many new families moving into Bloomfield Hills Estates the Kern Lake Garden Club decided to host a "get acquainted pot luck supper" as their project of the year.

The small garden club group of 20 were overwhelmed at the neighborhood response to the pot luck supper. persons on Saturday night. A nursery was provided for the small fry as their parents "met their neighbors" and whirled around to the square dancing tunes.

Planning the event were chairman and committee, Mrs. David McClary, Mrs. Thomas Colley, Mrs. Gill Hague, Mrs. Arthur Pohl, Mrs. Robert Neiman. Others were, Mrs. Eugene Noar, Mrs. Philip Duff, Mrs. Arthur Olson, Mrs. William Wise, Mrs. James Shannon.

NORTH ADAMS RESIDENTS opened their homes to Lenten pot luck suppers this season, sponsored by St. Stephen's Episcopal Church and conducted by the church's rector, Reverend Carl Sayers. Guest speakers were also present at the homes of hosts, of Greenreef road; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Logan, 1834 Greenreef, William Dewey of Anslow lane, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Cox of Riverside, Mrs. Arthur Olson, and Mrs. Robert Brandon of Pine Hill drive.

On Tuesday evening a group gathered at the James Settles of Far Hill drive for their pot luck supper and to hear guest speaker, Reverend Everett Francis, vicar of Church of the Good Shepherd in Dearborn. The last of the series of Lenten suppers will be held at the William Heaton home on Anslow lane. Speaking to the group will be their guest, Reverend Charles Logan, rector of St. Martin's Church in Detroit.

The James Jones of Charing Cross road recently returned from two weeks visiting at the Fort Lauderdale winter home of Mrs. Jones parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Nancarrow of Bloomfield Hills. During their stay they spent many hours fishing for bonitas, king, broad fish, dolphins and snappers. When it came time to fly home they gave luggage priority to the fish—and let their luggage take the long way home. On their first Sunday back home the Jones' cooked a great variety of their catch and made the rounds of the neighborhood distributing it to "fish lovers only".

Presently visiting the Jones family from Anaheim, Calif., is Jones' mother, Mrs. Lucille Jones.

THE THOMAS PATONS of Spur Hill drive spent last week touring Colorado Springs. They made their trip by jet giving them more time to view the beauty of the west.

The Andrew Smith of Orchard Hill drive and Dr. and Mrs. John Simpson of Washington road decided after the long winter to get away from it all for a few days. They will be in the neighborhood on their playground for sight seeing and touring the night spots.

Mrs. Charles C. McNair of Grosse Pointe was the honored guest at a family dinner party at the Jack Huber home on Newgate drive last Sunday. Monopolizing grandmother for the afternoon were the little Hubers, Jeffrey, Jay, Tom, Dennis and four month old, Steve.

Bing Gordon, son of the William Gordons of Robinhood Circle drive, will board jet on Easter Monday for a weeks visit in Short Hills, N. J. He will be the guest of Charles Ester family who moved to Short Hills a year ago from Robinhood Circle.

NANCY ALBERTSON of Tarry lane will join her school chum, Lucy Stenger, and will fly to Puerto Rico, via New York, on April 29. They will be the house-guests of the J. Woods of St. Thomas for a week while they tour the Virgin Islands.

Easter school elected their new slate of officers for the school year of 61-62 at their April meeting. On the slate are: president, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hyde; president-elect, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith; treasurer, Mr. and Mrs. James Herbst; recording secretary, Mr. and Mrs. James May; corresponding secretary, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rugg. Others are: hospitality, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Shover; membership, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Jeffe; program, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gwillim; publicity, Mr. and Mrs. David McClary; finance, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Parcells; school board representative, Mr. and Mrs. George Jones; youth activity, Mr. and Mrs. David Lewis.

WNFGA Branch Names President

Mrs. F. D. Cooper has been re-elected president of the Northwest-Detroit Branch of Woman's National Farm and Garden Association to which a number of Birmingham women belong. Other officers are Mrs. Friedrich Fiesemann, vice president; Mrs. O. H. Gaehler, recording secretary; Mrs. Eric Ericson, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Whitney Buck, treasurer. Mrs. Arnold Olson will serve as horticultural therapy chairman. These officers will be installed May 14 at a tea in the home of Mrs. Henry Paul, 2446 Penrose Drive, Farmington, after a tour of members' gardens. Hostesses will be Mrs. Howard Cowell and Mrs. Paul Keener.

Soroptimist Club Will Give Benefit

The Soroptimist Club of Birmingham is having its annual card party at the Birmingham Community House May 1. Proceeds will go to Camp Oakland and to the Tyler School for Handicapped Children. Mrs. R. H. Dewey is general chairman of the event, assisted by Mrs. Nan Degen, Mrs. C. H. Schmidt, Mrs. Maureen Lacombe, Mrs. B. G. Hoover, Mrs. W. J. Meadowcroft, Trudy Wenzel and Dr. Melden Everett.

Local 'Artists' Win Awards For Posters

The Oakland County Art Association Auxiliary presented certificates of merit for the Law Day, U.S.A., poster contest winners at Kingswood, Cranbrook and Southfield high schools this week. Elizabeth Harris, Edith Schläfer and Constance Bennett, Kingswood residents, were awarded their certificates at an assembly last Friday. They were presented by William Hartman, attorney and chairman of the board of directors of Kingswood School. Cranbrook winners were Sam Smith, 1834 Oak Street, Birmingham, and James Alexander, 5411 Lane Lake Road, Bloomfield Hills. George Fulkerson, Birmingham attorney general gave a short talk on Wednesday. SHARON MARTIN, 18175 Hill-ton; Nora Goss, 28440 Stuart
