Obituary Notices

Homer A. Ford

Following a long illness, Homer Alan Ford of Troy died April 18 in William Beaumont Hospital. Funeral services took place April 21 from the Price Funeral Home in Troy.

Mr. Ford is survived by his wife, the former Jane Peterson; two sons, David A. and Frederick G.; his mother, Mrs. Marie Ford of Troy, and two brothers, Lauren and Norman A., also of Troy.

Mrs. Myrtle Gould

Services will take place today at 2 p.m. in the Manley Bailey Funeral home for Mrs. Myrtle (Morley) Gould, 74, who died April 23 following a short illness.

Formerly of Birmingham, Mrs. Gould lived in Washington, Mich., for a number of years. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. William Kottke of Kaleva, Mich., and Mrs. Raymond De Viamick of New Haven, Mich.; three sons, Pringle of Birmingham, Gordon, of Almont, Mich., and John A., of Lake Orion.

Edward J. Moors

Edward J. Moors, 82, of Waco, Tex., died April 14 following a long illness. He is survived by his wife Katherine E. of Waco, and one daughter, Mrs. James E. Goldsmith of Birmingham.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Bell Chapel of William R. Hamilton Co. Interment was at White Chapel Cemetery, where a committal service also took place.

Mrs. Elizabeth Goss

Formerly a resident of Birmingham, Mrs. Elizabeth Goss died April 22 in the Elizabeth Convalescent Home in Royal Oak. Funeral services took place Wednesday in the Armstrong Funeral Home, Detroit, with burial in Bangor, Mich.

Mrs. Goss is survived by two sons: Marvin of Birmingham and Leo C. of Huntington Woods; a daughter, Mrs. Margaret Waters of Plymouth, four grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

C. J. Olshewski

Conrad Joseph Olshewski of Troy died April 22 in the Ardmore Hospital, Ferndale. A rosary service was recited Tuesday evening in the Sullivan Funeral Home, Royal Oak, with funeral services taking place Wednesday in Guardian Angels Church in Clanton. Burial was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Mr. Olshewski is survived by his wife Bernice; two stepchildren, Mrs. John C. Nelson and Kirk F. Dale both of Troy; two sisters and a brother.

Mrs. Ray A. Palmer

Mrs. Elizabeth D. Palmer, 81, of 250 Westchester Way, Birmingham, died Tuesday evening in William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak.

She was born in Richland and graduated from Kalamazoo College in 1904. She received a Masters Degree from Columbia University, was a retired assistant principal of Muskegon High School, and prior to that taught at Hastings and Otsego High Schools. She married Ray A. Palmer, her only survivor, in 1940.

Mrs. Palmer was a member of St. James Episcopal Church, Birmingham, and belonged to St. Peters Guild of the same church. Services, arranged by Manley Bailey Funeral Home, Birmingham, will be held Friday, 11 a.m. at St. James. Burial will be in Greenwood Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers Mr. Palmer requests contributions to the Michigan Heart Association or the Mental Fund of St. James Episcopal Church, Birmingham.

Greek Stage Featured in Impresario

The history of Cranbrook's Greek Theater is featured in the May issue of "Impresario," Detroit's magazine of the performing arts.

In operation forty-six years, the Greek theater has been the Southeastern Michigan leader in many cultural performances, including drama, ballet, music, and a wide range of Broadway musical comedies.

The magazine, Impresario, was begun last year as an entertainment guide with informative articles on the performing arts. Joyce Klarr, 1444 Chesterfield, Birmingham, has written a light fashion story for this month's edition called "Passions for Fashionists." James C. Moloney, Birmingham psychiatrist, has been a contributor, as well as Peter Jepsen, Birmingham artist.
