

Mrs. V. G. Perry Will Be Hostess To Nurse Group

The lay committee of the Visiting Nurse Association for South Oakland County will meet for luncheon with Mrs. Vene G. Perry on May 3 at 12:30 in her home at 1055 Fairfax, Birmingham.

Plans for the Community Tea which the committee is sponsoring on May 17 will be completed. Mrs. A. L. La Mont is general chairman of the event. The tea will be held at the home of Mrs. Edward S. Wellock, 1351 Kirkway, Bloomfield Hills.

Plans for the annual staff dinner to be held in June will also be discussed.

Wall-to-wall carpeting makes a room look larger but only very large rooms can stand more than one figured material.

South American Dinner Is Given

The American Legion Auxiliary's potluck dinner on April 14 was a South American party with authentic menu and decorations.

The guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Larson, Mrs. Hugh McHugh, Mrs. James Dutton, Mrs. Harry Sisson, Mrs. James Casey, Jon Capron, and Colin Gowans.

Disney Film To Promote Flight by Jet

It's going to be "Bon Voyage" for Jane Wyman and two others watching a movie of the same name May 10.

The vivacious co-star of the new Disney film is flying here from Hollywood a day ahead of the benefit premiere for Camp Oakland, while two other premiere-goers will be flying off to Mexico City soon after. Mrs. Ben D. Mills reports that at the premiere her committee is giving away two first-class, round trip tickets to The Land of Sun and Sombros.

"The tickets are beautiful," says the enthusiastic Mrs. Mills, chairman of the Camp Oakland Women's Committee which is sponsoring the benefit at Ford Auditorium. They will carry their possessors by Canadian Pacific Airlines jet from Windsor to Mexico City and back.

Miss Wyman herself will be doing some flying around Detroit and Oakland County while she's here.

BECAUSE SHE IS deeply interested in projects like Camp Oakland, she will tour the camp for underprivileged children on Wednesday afternoon, May 9. Then she'll stay for dinner with Director William J. Matus and the 36 young residents of Girls' Ranch and Boys' Ranch.

Thursday the star will be honored guest at a dinner party at the Detroit Club preceding the premiere. Camp Oakland President and Mrs. Walter F. Gebrike will be host and hostess at the dinner for members of the premiere committee.

Then the guest of honor steps before the Klieg lights and onto the red carpet being rolled out for her at the premiere.

She'll end a full day at a supper party given by Mr. and Mrs. Mills in their Bloomfield Hills home on Vaughan Road. The Mills mittee to the after-theatre event have invited the premiere com- for the star.

They'll Dance at Italian Festival

Mrs. Walter DeSimpel, Mrs. E. Leo DeSimpel and Mrs. Harry Winston Jr. (from left) are looking ahead to Christ Child Society's annual spring dance to take place Saturday at the Birmingham Country Club.

An authentic vendor's cart, totting hors d'oeuvres to the guests, will be part of the decor representing Italy at festival time.

Mrs. Fruehauf Announces Glamorous Plans for Ball

Because the carousel has truly been a symbol of happy times for any child, its name was given to the first Carousel Ball given in 1961 to help Michigan's emotionally disturbed children.

Now the time is drawing near when the second annual Carousel Ball, sponsored by the Women's Division of the Greater Detroit Chapter, Michigan Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children, will be held.

Announcement of the time and place, May 19 at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel, was made Tuesday by Woman's Division President and Ball Chairman Mrs. Roy A. Fruehauf of Bloomfield Hills.

Measured in dollars, the 1961 Carousel Ball was a sure-fire success. It provided $65,000 geared health and happiness for many of Michigan's disturbed youth.

Tuesday's luncheon featured a talk by Dr. Richard L. Cutler, professor of clinical psychology, University of Michigan. He is also a member of the Michigan Mental Health Commission.

In addition to naming committee chairmen for the benefit ball next month, Mrs. Fruehauf announced that Mrs. John B. Swainson, wife of Michigan's governor, had accepted honorary presidency of the Women's Division.

Assisting Mrs. Fruehauf as vice chairmen of the ball are Mesdames John W. Anderson II, William H. Breach, M. M. Burgess, C. A. Dean Jr., Frank W. Donovan, Alfred R. Clancy Jr., Maria G. Lalli, George W. Romney, Joseph A. Vance Jr., Theodore O. Yntema.

OTHER COMMITTEE chairmen (from the Birmingham-Bloomfield area) are Mrs. James M. Niederlander, Mrs. Joseph F. Paulus, Mrs. William J. Scripps, Mrs. Packer Avis, Mrs. Jesse P. Judd, Mrs. Henry C. Forster Jr. Contributions for the ball will be $100 a couple with an early cocktail hour slated to precede the dinner which will begin at 8:30 p.m.

Guy Lombardo and his Royal Canadians will provide the "Sweetest Music This Side of Heaven" for the ball guests.

But, star of the evening will be Gordon MacFae who will be missing his own twenty-first wedding anniversary celebration at home to come to Detroit and do his part toward success of the 1962 Carousel Ball.
