

Nancy Milne Weds At Church Ceremony

At a ceremony solemnized April 14 in the Franklin Community Church, Nancy Gagli Milne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kear Milne of Huntingdon Woods, became the bride of Duncan Laidlaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Laidlaw of Tottenham Drive, Birmingham.

MRS. LAIDLAW

The bride chose for her wedding a gown of white silk organza accented by applique embroidery of sheerest lace which marked the full skirt and tight bodice. Her fingertip veil fell from a tiny cap of tulle and orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

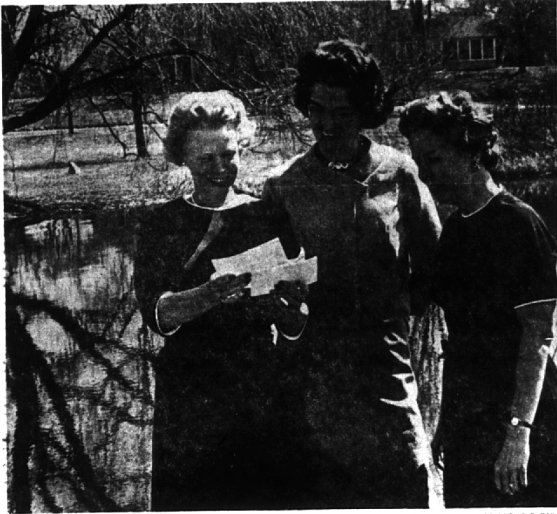

Mrs. George J. Milne of Royal Oak was matron of honor for her sister-in-law, and bridesmaids included Christine Laidlaw, sister of the bridegroom, and Linda Swain of Bloomfield Hills.

They were all dressed identically in lemon yellow organza sheaths, wore matching veiled pill box hats and carried yellow orchids, lilies of the valley and lily of the valley.

George J. Milne, brother of the bride was best man, and seating the guests were Stewart and Bruce Laidlaw, brothers of the bridegroom; James McCreedy and Matthew Pohl, both of Birmingham.

Following a wedding trip to Vermont, the newly-weds will make their home in Birmingham.

Time-Out for Breath of Spring

Mrs. Parbury P. Schmidt, Mrs. George N. Hillinger and Mrs. John S. Judd (from left) are among Birmingham women working on committees for the Seven Eastern Women's Colleges benefit May 7 in Ford Auditorium at 8:30 p.m. J. Edward Day, Postmaster

General of the United States, will be guest speaker. Last week the above threesome met in Mrs. Schmidt's home on Wing Lake and took time-out to enjoy for a few minutes the sunshine and warmth of a spring afternoon.

son Jr., the Gordon Gietingers, Mrs. Roger Nivan and Mrs. Albert E. Badger, waiting for their respective cars to be brought around, and Mr. and Mrs. Roger M. Kyes.

And Still They Came

Parking was at a premium on Harmon Ave. Sunday morning, all entrances to Holy Name holding almost more than the traffic would bear.

Among the crowds, spotted Mrs. Donald McGee and daughter Katie; Jenny Bogan, with her cousins, Mary Ellen and Nancy Bogan; Mrs. Frank H. Bishop, with Chris, Ellen, Lydia and Kate, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Miller, the latter in a sunshine-yellow suit with a picture hat of softest orange. Cars were parked blocks away from Maple, too, Sunday morning as members of the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham arrived for services.

Sidewalks gave the illusion that most of the parishioners were walking to church, some of this group including Mrs. Edwin Gage and Peggy, a threesome composed of Mark Cameron, Ernie Cooper and Jerry Johnson; Paula Thorne, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Starr with Son John, and Carleton C. Patterson.

Easter Eve Party

Members of the Detroit Culver Club provided entertainment Easter Eve at Bloomfield Open Hunt Club, treating members and guests to a colorful exhibition by the famed Lancer Platoon.

Nineteen cadets from the military academy were in town to participate, stacking their prowess in jumping and polo against BOH's top teams. The fact that local riders came out ahead score-wise in no way dampened a fun evening which included, besides activities in the ring, buffet dinner and dancing.

Dates for the cadets included a group of our town's prettiest, among whom were Diana Gornick, Adrienne Andreae, Diane Bugas, Sue Wetherby, Katie Lovett, June Ferar, Karen Christiansen and Ann Fuchs.

Among adults present were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. William Hartman, Dr. and Mrs. Luther R. Ledger, the Colin Campbells, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mitchell, the Wendell Smiths, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Withers, Mr. and Mrs. Morris C. Purdy and Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Wetherby.

E. N. Cole Elected Boy Scout Prexy

E. N. Cole, General Motors group vice president in charge of the car and truck divisions, today was elected president of the Detroit area council of the Boy Scouts of America.

Cole, 1371 Kirkway, Birmingham, succeeds Merritt D. Hill, former Ford Motor Co. vice president and recently named president of the J. I. Case Co., in the volunteer post.

Long active in Scouting work, Cole has been a council vice president since 1960, and a member of the council's executive board since 1958. His election to the council presidency came at a luncheon meeting of the executive board.

In January, 1962, Cole received the Silver Beaver Award, the highest honor a local council can bestow on a volunteer. In 1961, Cole served as chairman of the National Annual Meeting of the Boy Scouts, when Detroit was host to some 4,000 Scout leaders.

Cancer Movies To Be Shown Free of Charge

"A Breath of Fresh Air" and "Out of the Shadows"—the two movies on cancer that have aroused intense interest wherever they have been shown—will be screened at the Birmingham Theater May 3 at 1 p.m. Admission is free and all women of the area are invited to attend.

Dr. Robert Kuhn of the Michigan Cancer Foundation board, and Dr. Clayton Gordon, Birmingham physician, will conduct a questions-and-answers forum following the films.

The movies have been shown at many local theaters during April's educational crusade. They have attracted record attendances in each house.

Mrs. Ben D. Mills, program chairman of the day, is also a board member and chairman of the Birmingham-Bloomfield branch of MCF. George E. Cullen, Jr., 1962 crusade chairman, will speak.
