

Period Gowns, Modern Combine for Style Show

Bridal gowns dating from the Civil War period to a present day bridal party will be modeled at St. Catherine's Guild's "Bridal Memories" fashion show and card party May 8 at St. James Episcopal Church. Current bridal fashions will be presented by Chudiks of Birmingham.

Mrs. Wayne Jensen, general chairman, states that twenty gowns dating from 1860 have been donated by members of the community. "Because the gowns were made for slight women, we have to use some teenage models," said Mrs. John Knaff, co-chairman.

WOMEN MODELING are Mrs. G. E. Montgomery, 514 Park, Birmingham; Mrs. Harold Gallagher, 1119 E. Maple, Birmingham; Mrs. John Knaff, 1050 Southlawn, Birmingham; Mrs. Arthur Gospel, 507 Butternut, Royal Oak; Linda McKay, 1650 Yosemite, Birmingham; Carole Christian, 2494 Cromwell, Birmingham; Mrs. Lawrence McKay, 1650 Yosemite, Birmingham; Betty Conley, 1001 Willow Lane, Birmingham; Mrs. Marc Hagerman, 4055 Butternut Hill, Birmingham; and Mrs. David Taylor, 1512 N. Glenngary, Birmingham.

Dessert and card table centerpieces will be in keeping with the general theme of a bridal reception. The committee wishes people to know that they may play card games other than bridge following the fashion show.

Tickets may be obtained at the church office or by calling Mrs. Douglas Robinson.
