Residents Finish London Sojourn

By ELIZABETH YATES
North Adams Correspondent

The latest sojourn of the John Kinseys of Hyland Drive and William Pinkerton of Pleasant Ridge, was Europe. This was their first winter trip to the continent.

During the month of travels they stopped in London to dine at some of the famous restaurants and to take in the musicals they had missed at home—"Music Man" and "Sound of Music".

While in Paris they visited friends, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Briggs formerly of Detroit, in their picturesque french skylite studio apartment and made one of the shows at the Lido. Germany and Italy were also on their itinerary before settling down in Switzerland for a few days.

ON THEIR return home they stayed just long enough to repack and depart for the three-week stay in Sarasota and Pompano Beach, Fla.

Arriving to spend four days with the Kinseys the first week in May will be Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Pearson of Sidney, Australia.

The Pearsons are on the last leg of an around the world journey and will leave for home when they bid the Kinseys adieu. The two families meet again in October when the Kinseys will be flying to Australia.

ARRIVING home in time to spend Easter with their little ones are the Ira Wilsons II of Fox Run Drive. They flew to Phoenix and arriving rented a car for their sight-seeing travels.

While staying at the picturesque High Acres in Tucson they made the rounds of ranches; the University of Arizona; and Chiricahua National Park and Tombstone. While in the ancient town they studied the beauty of the desert and cactus at the Sinora Museum.

Who among us is able to go through the days and the years of his life without some mistakes... some of them trivial, some of them very troublesome? Life is given to each of us for the experiences that living brings... these experiences all adding up to testing us, strengthening us—or, alas! allowing some of us to give way to a weakness. Fight to follow the GOOD!
