MRS. CHARLES D. FRITZ, Mrs. Harry Niderlander and Mrs. David K. Wirth, all of Birmingham, and members of the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony, are among local committee heads planning the Carnation Ball May 5 at the Grosse Pointe Club. Proceeds will go to the Maintenance Fund for the Symphony.

Hundreds of Pink Carnations To Be Flown in for Ball

One hundred dozen pink carnations will be flown in from Colorado for the elaborate Carnation Ball scheduled for May 5 at the Grosse Pointe Club.

Party is being given by members of the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, with Mrs. David K. Wirth of Birmingham and Mrs. John A. Kirlin, Grosse Pointe, Co-chairmen.

Delicate pink and scented invitations for the glamorous party were mailed several weeks ago and Birminghamite Mrs. Charles D. Fritz, ticket and patron chairman, reports just a handful of reservations left.

PLANS CALL FOR dinner and dancing by candlelight, strolling musicians, exotic bottles of perfume as favors for feminine contingent and a couple of door prizes exciting enough to turn any lady's head. Some lucky guest will go home with a custom wig fashioned by Gerald and Chett, of Franklin, and another will be the recipient of a Sophie original.

Other Birmingham women working on the ball committee (proceeds will go to the Maintenance Fund for the Detroit Symphony) include Mrs. Arthur O. Moran Jr., Mrs. Richard B. Wherman, Mrs. Robert B. Lowry, Mrs. William J. Westcott, Mrs. Thomas W. Bookmyer, Mrs. William M. Bergin, Mrs. Harry D. Anderson, Mrs. Lee A. Bertling Jr., and Mrs. Loren D. Riley.

Birmingham Citizens Are Board Members

Birmingham citizens who will assume new responsibilities on the Board of Directors for Area Service Association (a Torch Fund agency) at its twenty-ninth annual meeting May 8 include Mrs. W. L. Lowrie, Hilltop Lane, president and chairman of the board, and Mrs. Robert E. Vanierbeck, 1250 Lakeside, recording secretary. H. S. Duris, 18175 Kinross, will serve on the budget committee.

Presiding at the 7:30 p.m. meeting at the Northwest Unitarian Church, 23925 Northwestern Highway, Southfield, will be honorary member of the association, Mrs. Charles E. Boyd, of Pleasant Ridge. All persons interested in the work of the association are invited to attend. Guest speaker will be Mrs. John J. Shada, 1911 Pinecrest Drive, Ferndale. Mrs. Shada, a graduate of the University of Detroit, holds both an M.A. and a Ph. B. degree and taught speech and English at U. of D. and at Madonna College in Livonia. For ten years she was Family Life Chairman of the Detroit Council of Catholic Women and is presently the director-consultant for the Council. Mrs. Shada, chairman of the Speakers Bureau of the Women's Division of the Detroit Roundtable of Catholics, Jews and Protestants, Inc. and secretary.

treasurer of the South Oakland County chapter, chaired the 1950 Program Planning Institute held at the Rackham Building.

She is chairman of the Exceptional Child Committee of the Ferndale PTA Council. A recipient of the U. of D. Alumnae "Woman of the Year" Award in 1954, Mrs. Shada lives with her athletic coach husband, four daughters and four sons, ranging in ages from three to seventeen years.

Frank D. Gentile, minister of the host church, will give the invocation and the Women's Association of the church will prepare and serve the refreshments. Musical presentations and a film, prepared by Chester J. Crawford showing the work of the agency, will also be a part of the program. Certificates of award will be presented to Oakland County Medical Society, Oakland County Cooperative Extension Service, Ferndale Golden Age Club, Glenridge Street Club of Royal Oak Township and Oak Park Human Relations Committee for their work in community contributions.
