BEVERLY HILLS

Broadway Delights New York Tourists

By NORMA WHOLIHAN
Beverly Correspondent

Mrs. James Meager of Riverside and her two daughters, Mrs. Stewart Stevenson and Mrs. Vincent Meager of Beverly Hills, have returned from an event-packed week in New York.

En route the girls stopped at the delicious-smelling town of Hershey, Penn. There they took a guided tour through the processing plant, then drove on to New York. Among the many attractions they attended were the Broadway shows "Carnival," "Shot in the Dark," "The Rockefellers," "The Price is Right," and also a tour of the United Nations Building.

Despite several rainy days they even found time to shop for chic new Easter bonnets.

IT WAS AN exciting April 13 weekend for the boys of Troop 1010 from Greenfield School. Their scout master Burton Bowkamp and his assistants had a campout for them at the D-Bar A Scout Camp.

MR. AND MRS. Robert Ross are at home on Redmere after a two-week vacation trip to Arizona where they visited Mr. Ross' sister, Arizona, weather was very nice. The day they left for home the temperature stood at 95 degrees.

The Ross' saw the Hoover Dam and made a side-trip of 400 miles to Oak Creek Canyon which, a smaller edition of Grand Canyon that affords some spectacular views.

They couldn't miss Las Vegas and took in some of the shows which starred Dinah Shore and Arlene Dahl.

THE WEST Beverly Garden Club met at 1 p.m. last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Herbert Ashcraft. They had luncheon and week. John, who has been on the Dean's List in both 1961-62, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Ahern, of 3485 Broadway Blvd.

2 Lathrup Women Map Campaign For Library Drive

LATHRUP—Although they received council blessing, two Lathrup women were told Monday that they did not need council permission to circulate petitions to put a charter amendment on the ballot.

Mrs. William J. O'Brien, recreation commission director, and Mrs. Lee Stacy proposed to initiate a referendum providing for charter change to allow use of city tax monies to supply library service to Lathrup.

The two women also said they plan to organize a house-to-house canvass by local women to acquaint residents of need for library service.
