

Mid-Summer Weddings

MRS. MITCHELL

MRS. MEINHARDT

MRS. REILLY

At services which took place July 28 in St. James Episcopal Church, Lisbeth Mason Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tol Reed of Wimbledon Drive, Birmingham, became the bride of John Paul Mitchell, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Paul Mitchell of Kenosha, Wis.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an informal gown of Chantilly lace fashioned with a circular skirt, scoop neckline and three-quarter sleeves. Her short veil was of illusion, and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

Virginia Elise Backus and Nicholas Parsons were honor maid and bridesmaid, respectively, wearing for the occasion afternoon frocks of pale blue and white checked sheer gingham. Their flowers were daisies.

Warren VanderHill was best man, and seating the guests were Richard L. Moran and Patrick F. Graham.

Following their wedding trip, the newlyweds will be at home in State College, Pa.

Dona Jean Shellbaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kane Shellbaker of Upper Montclair, N. J., became the bride of Lt. (j.g.) Paul Meinhardt, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Meinhardt of Smallwood Road, Birmingham, at a ceremony which took place July 11 in Newport, R. I.

The military service took place in the Chapel-by-the-Sea Church and was followed by a reception and dinner in the Officers' Club at Newport.

The bride wore silk organza designed with a portrait neckline, fitted bodice accented by Alencon lace and seed pearls, a bouffant skirt and chapel train. Her fingertip veil fell from a lily of the valley crown, and she carried white roses and stephanotis.

Carol Shellbaker was her sister's only attendant, and wore white silk organza embroidered in pale pink flowers. Her tiny hat was contrived of a pink bow and veiling, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Lt. (j.g.) Donald L. Greer of Quonset, R. I., was best man, and ushers were Lt. Thomas Huber and Ensign John Bandy, both of Newport.

Following the reception,

Barbara Claire Cueny and William Clemens Reilly spoke their marriage vows at an 11 o'clock high mass in Holy Name Church July 28. The ceremony was followed by breakfast and a reception at the Birmingham Golf Club.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Burke E. Cueny of Birmingham, and her husband is the son of Mrs. William J. Reilly, also of Birmingham.

A crown of ivory pearl de soie was chosen by Barbara for her wedding. It was fashioned with a bodice of Alencon lace embroidered in pearl medallions and further accented by a chapel train. Her bouffant veil of ivory silk illusion was secured to a diadem of pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of philanopsis and stephanotis.

Bonnie Marie Cueny was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Burke E. Cueny and Mary Susan Schlichter. They wore pink silk organza sheaths, matching veiled headpieces of silk roses and carried cascade arrangements of carnations and ivy.

Philip Michael Reilly was best man, and ushers included Dr. Richard C. Reilly, Bruce E. McDonald, Stuart E. Frankfort and Gordon W. Degener.

Following their wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Fort Hood, Tex.
