State Police Take Over Civil Defense

The Michigan State Police took over the administration and operation of the Michigan office of Civil Defense yesterday under an executive order signed by Governor Swainson.

This was the first executive reorganization plan to go into effect since enactment of the government reorganization law in 1968.

Under its terms State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs becomes the administrator of state civil defense.

THE DEFENSE STAFF of about 20 was whittled down July 1 to nine persons—eight men and a secretary—but the final details of its reorganization were to be determined later.

Meanwhile, usable furnishings and equipment were transferred from the long rented quarters in downtown Lansing to State Police headquarters in East Lansing. Furnishings not needed went into storage or were disposed of through the state salvage division.

Notification of the merger has been sent to local and county civil defense directors and mail should hereafter be addressed to the State Office of Civil Defense, Michigan State Police headquarters, East Lansing.

Civil defense had a budget of $200,000 for the last fiscal year, half provided by the legislature and half by the federal government. The legislature reduced its appropriation one-half to $50,000 for this fiscal year, and it is expected that this will be matched equally by the federal government, giving the State Police $100,000 for the operation.

Home Fire Causes Estimated Damage Of $4,000-5,000

SOUTHFIELD — A fire that started in a bedroom caused an estimated $4,000-5,000 damage to a home here Monday.

The fire department said the cause of the blaze at the home of Jack T. McGee, 15805 West 12 Mile Road, was undetermined. The one-story house was damaged throughout by heat and smoke.

McGee reported to the fire department that the barking of his pet dog awoke the family. McGee, his wife and their baby daughter escaped from the dwelling without injury.
