

Twp. Man Heads Croatian Shrine Fund Committee

A $100,000 shrine dedicated to Our Lady of Bistrica, envisioned by families of Croatian origin in the metropolitan Detroit area, is nearing completion.

John Fropole, 855 Harsdale, Bloomfield Township, heads the National Shrine Committee as director.

Others in the Birmingham-Bloomfield area lending a hand towards the success of the venture include: Edward Pintar, 22400 Hillview church, serving spiritual needs of Lane; John Drazick, 4840 Stone Lane; Herman Drazick, 31714 Southview.

THE SHRINE is being erected at St. Jerome's Church, 605 W. Eight Mile Road, between Woodward and John R. as a national shrine devoted to the patroness of the Croatian people.

St. Jerome's is a Roman Catholic church, serving spiritual needs of more than 500 families of Croatian extraction. There are approximately 25,000 people with Croatian background in the metropolitan Croatian community.

In a ceremony rich in tradition, the cornerstone for the shrine will be laid on Aug. 15.

Fr. Victor D. Rogulj, OFM, long interested in plans for the shrine will come from St. Anthony's par-

Fr. Rogulj was assistant pastor at St. Jerome's before his transfer earlier this spring.

Sewer Bond Bids Delay S'field Road Widening Project

The widening of Southfield Road will wait until after bond bids for Lathrup's storm sewer work are opened Monday.

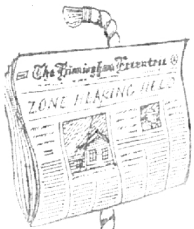

The storm sewer work will not start until after the bonds are sold

Southfield Road is to be widened to five lanes through Southfield and Lathrup and the existing two-lane pavement is to be torn up and replaced.

Construction contract for the widening has been awarded by the Oakland County Road Commission to Denton Construction Co., Detroit, for $627,865, lowest of six bidders.
