

Rites Solemnized In Christ Church

Wearing a gown of ivory peau de soie, Mary Jeanne Hargreaves walked up the aisle of Christ Church Cranbrook Saturday afternoon to become the bride of Ralph Andrew Graham.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Beverly Hargreaves of Pembroke Road, Bloomfield Hills, and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Max M. Graham of Williamston, Mich.

The bridal robes were enhanced by an Alencon lace bodice, short cap sleeves and scoop neckline. The lustrous folds of the full skirt fell into a chapel train at the back, and a short veil was caught to a rose-point lace crown which had been worn by the bride's mother. Stephanotis and miniature lilies were fastened to a prayer book carried by the bride.

JANET TIERNAGE was matron of honor, and bridesmaids included Anne MacManus, Anne Bowen, Pat Woodell, Mary Ann Gittenanner, and Katy Kyes. They were all dressed in yellow and white organdy and lace, wearing matching hats trimmed with a single daisy and carried bouquets of white daisies.

James Simons was best man, and seating the guests were Robert Wray, Jack Falk, Frank McGuire, Carroll Graham and John Bowen.

Following a wedding trip through northern Canada, the couple will make their home in Bloomfield Hills.
