Main Abounds With Sailors From Area

Five cruisers formed a convoy which left the Detroit area last Friday morning, with a full complement of local residents, for a long week end at Grand Bend, Ont. Aboard the "Black Top" owned by Mr. and Mrs. George Souter of Yarmouth Road, were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilson of Bingham Road and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Burton of Stoneleigh Drive. Mr. and Mrs. Bud Miller came from Ann Arbor to be the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kaldelish of McVern Road on their boat, the "Toyyot V".

MR. AND MRS. Harry Houck of Middleton Court invited their sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Neef of Gilbert Lake Road as their guests on the "Wildone" and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jessup were guests aboard the "Red Room II," owned by Mr. and Mrs. William Carrick of Ranch Lane.

The fifth cruiser, the "Pamorama," was "home" to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Miner and family who joined the convoy for a day's fun at Grand Bend and then continued on with their family for other ports.

MRS. ROBERT T. WEBSTER

Garden Reception Follows Ceremony

Christ Church Cranbrook was the scene of the marriage Aug. 4 of Sue Ann Woodside, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Park Woodside of Bloomfield Hills and Robert Price Webster, currently of Fort Knox, Ky., son of the late Judge and Mrs. Clyde I. Webster formerly of Detroit.

The Rev. Robert P. Patterson officiated at the 8 o'clock ceremony which was followed by a candlelight reception in the gardens of the bride's parents.

Crysal white pearl de soie blended with embroidered Alencon lace to fashion the bridal robes, which were further accented by contoured bodice, portrait décolletage and demi-length sleeves. Beneath the inverted Watteau gathers at the back of the full skirt, a train swept to court length.

SENTIMENTAL TOUCH was the tiered lace-bordered illusion veil crowned with a diadem of silver-tipped mouseline petals which had been made in Paris for the bride's sister for her wedding. Phalaenopsis orchids, lily of the valley and ivy were used in the bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Charles M. Smilie III, of Columbus, Ind., was her sister's matron of honor, and bridesmaids included Lynn Benjamin of Bloomfield Hills; Karen Lazenby of Royal Oak; Beverly White, of Canton, Ohio, and Polly Howe of Chagrin Falls, Ohio. They all wore cotton blue sheaths with bouffant overskirts, cap sleeves and bateau necklines. Their tiny hats were composed of veiling caught to cabbage roses and they carried rapture roses and pink gladiolus.

William H. McCoy, Jr. of St. Clair Shores was best man, and seating the guests were Gerald F. Fitzgerald, Jr. of Grosse Pointe; Charles M. Smilie of Columbus, Ind.; Jerry Brangard of Detroit and Neil T. Peters of Harper Woods.

Following a wedding trip to northern Michigan, the couple will live temporarily in Charlottesville, Va., where the bridegroom will take special training for the Judge Advocate General Corps, after which he will be assigned to a permanent location.
