Parties Fete Bridal Pair

Maryann Ogur, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lee Ogur of Jonathan Lane, is being honored at a number of parties preceding her wedding Aug. 25 to Carl-Gunnar Karlstrom, son of Mrs. Gunnar Karlstrom of Colonial Court and the late Mr. Karlstrom.

Miss Ogur's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Glen A. Carlson of Country Club Drive, just back from a trip to Japan, are planning a brunch for the wedding party and out-of-town guests at their home. Guests will be another aunt and uncle of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick L. Merners of Oakhills Drive.

IN JUNE Mrs. Karlstrom gave a tea at the home of the Edward E. Wilbaks and on Aug. 24 Mrs. Karlstrom will give the rehearsal dinner at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Luther R. Leader on Cranbrook Road.

Brother of the groom-to-be, S. Olof Karlstrom of Ann Arbor, who will be best man, and another brother, Lars T. Karlstrom of Cincinnati, will give the bachelor's party on Aug. 23.

Others who have entertained are Mrs. Harold E. Stokes for lunch and a kitchen shower on Saturday in her home on Lake Crescent Drive; Mrs. Clifford A. Nelson and Mrs. George B. Carlson with a luncheon and miscellaneous shower; Mrs. Bengt Wallgren with a dessert luncheon and kitchen shower and Lynne Young at a luncheon and personal shower.

MRS. ARCHANGELI

Noon Wedding Held At St. Hugo's Church

Kathleen Ann Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard P. Powell of 1200 Orchard Edge Road, Bloomfield Hills, became the bride of John Martin Archangel at a ceremony Wednesday noon at St. Hugo of the Hills Church.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin D. Archangel of Midland Avenue, Birmingham. The ceremony was performed by the Rt. Rev. John D. Fitzgerald of Chicago.

Her short-length, French illusion veil was attached to a Paris ring. She carried a cascade bouquet of white stephanotis and ivy, centered with white gardenias.

Susan Starr Powell, sister of the bride, was the honor attendant and wore white, lace over yellow peony de-sous with matching accessories. Her flowers were arranged in a cascade bouquet, composed of miniature white elegant orchids and ivy.

FRED WOODWORTH of Birmingham served as best man and the guests were seated by John Leygard of Grosse Pointe and Bradley Mack of Birmingham. A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the wedding, after which the couple left for Palm Beach, Fla. for their wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Archangel will make their home in Birmingham.

Host Regular Old-Fashioned Howdy-Neighbor' Supper

GLORIA JESSUP MA 6-3257

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pittman of Bainbridge Drive hosted a get-acquainted buffet supper last Sunday evening for their immediate neighbors.

The guests included newcomers Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson II and Mr. and Mrs. Claude R. Watkins, both of Bainbridge, Mr. and Mrs. W. Heister, Mr. and Mrs. M. Kline and Miss Rose Pontello, all of Northgate Drive, and Mr. and Mrs. D. Wilsner of Autumn Lane.

HAVE YOU met the new residents of 1800 Bainbridge? They are Mr. and Mrs. John (Jack) Rex Wilson II and their seven grown-up sons John Rex Jr., better known as "Stumpy."

The Wilson family moved into their new home the middle of June from Austin, Tex. Mr. Wilson is Manager of Dealer Finances for the Stran Steel Corporation. Both he and Mrs. Wilson attended Baldwin Wallace College in Ohio. They enjoy swimming, golf, bridge and music. Mrs. Wilson was the organist for the Methodist Church of Austin.

MRS. C. W. Fisher and her daughter, Mrs. Robert White of Columbiana, Ohio were the house-guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson. Mrs. Fisher is Mrs. Wilson's mother and it was her first visit with the Wilson family since they moved to the area.

LATHRUP
Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Forrest arrived last week from Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. for an extended visit with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Forrest and family of Bloomfield Drive. During their six-week stay they will also spend some time visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Forrest Jr. of Birmingham.

MR. AND MRS. Donald Forrest left last Thursday for a long weekend at the Grand Hotel on Mackinac Island. Mr. Forrest attended a convention part of the time while they were there and the rest of the trip was spent relaxing.

MR. AND MRS. Ernest Cole of Bloomfield Drive are back home following a ten-day vacation in Colorado Springs. The Coles two sons, Brian and Gary, age six and four, accompanied their parents on the trip.

The trip turned out to be not only a pleasure but an educational one for the two young gentlemen. They enjoyed exploring near a mountain stream one day while the family was on a picnic, climbing the rock formations at the Gardens of the Gods, and riding up the mountain from the Hotel Broadmoor to the zoo on a cog train.

After spending an hour or more touring the zoo, the Cole family found that the cog train down again yet another experience.

The Fred Thompson home on

Sunset is a very busy place these days with the approaching marriage of daughter Nancy only a few weeks away.

But to add a little more excitement, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson are preparing to leave for Europe on September 15. They will spend a week touring France and Italy for the Ford Motor Company and will be accompanied by 150 dealers and their wives.

Speaks Vows

Ruth Ellen Whitesell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richey W. Whitesell, formerly of South Bend, Ind., now of 18043 Riverside Drive, Beverly Hills, spoke her marriage vows Aug. 4 to William J. Hepler, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Hepler, Jr. of South Bend. The ceremony took place in the First Presbyterian Church of South Bend.

People who eat . . . do it better at Biff's!

Funny thing about Biff's. Just being near one is enough to give you an appetite. It is the fresh, clean-scrubbed look (on both sides of the counter) that does it? Or the smile you thought went out of style? Maybe it's that great food you've been hearing about. How can you tell for sure? Come to Biff's today . . . even if you're not hungry. You will be.
