

Garden Club Plans Fall Flower Show

ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1682

All WNPMA members in the North Adams area are invited to enter flower arrangements in the September flower show, co-sponsored by the Lorraine Manor branch and the Michigan division Flower Show School. The arrangements will be on display throughout the Miracle Mile Shopping Center on Sept. 12-13. This will be the Lorraine Manor Branch's first flower show and will help student judges who will participate in the judging. Two scholarships are being donated to the Lorraine Manor club by the shopping center for the club's fête.

Those interested in entering may contact Mrs. Fred Trickey of Orchard Hill Drive, entry chairman, before the deadline on Aug. 11. Mrs. Fred Stofansky of Dowling Road is the passing chairman. Both chairmen are student judges and members of the Osage Garden Club.

THE HOWARD BEERS and young Beers, Louis, Vanessa and Stephen, of Burnley Drive will be leaving for an exciting two weeks in Puerto Rico the middle of August.

Their plans include staying at a beach hotel while they tour San Juan and the coastal area. They will also live at the El Barranquitas in the mountain interior as they visit historical landmarks and take in the beauty of the countryside.

Louis will be home long enough to repack and leave the middle of September for Harvard University where he will begin his freshman year.

THE ARTHUR OLSONS and children, Eileen, Cindy and Skipper, of Kernway Drive spent the past two weeks hiking in the sun as well as water skiing at Lake Koronis, Wis. Arriving to complete the family circle was son Spencer, who is a PFC at Fort Gordon, Ga.

A stop was made in Chicago to visit the Forest Leveille family, relatives of the Olsons, for a few days.

Mrs. Thomas Noonan and children, Jeff and Denise of Stanford, Conn., will be visiting their former Hickory Heights neighbors while in Birmingham for a few days this weekend. They plan on going on to Chicago where they intend to visit Mrs. Noonan's mother.

A NEW and thrilling experience awaits eight-year-old Scott and six-year-old Beth Baldwin, children of the William Baldwins of Spur Hill Drive on Aug. 18.

On that day they will take their first plane trip to Milwaukee, Wis., where their grandmother, Mrs. Grace Baldwin, will be waiting for them. They will then motor on to Racine and spend a week there visiting grandmother.

The Charles Anann family of Satterlee Drive will join other Birmingham families and members of Northminster Presbyterian Church at Presbytery Point in the Upper Peninsula for a week of family camp life.

Other area families attending will be the Louis Horvaths of Hickory Heights Drive, the Paul Komesof of Meadowlane Drive and the Kermit Westons of Birch Drive. During their three-week stay they will also visit Glen Lake and Dune Crest, areas Mrs. Pearson visited as a girl.

On their return to Birmingham, the Pearsons will be moving to Bloomington, Ill., where Pearson has accepted a position as department chairman at the university. While here Pearson taught English at MSUO.

THE WILLIAM ARMSTRONG

Kathryn A. DeNio Wed in Kalamazoo

Kathryn A. DeNio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. DeNio of Eastside Drive in Birmingham, spoke for marriage vows Aug. 4 to David A. Dykstra, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alke Dykstra of Kalamazoo. The ceremony took place in Bethel Reformed Church, Kalamazoo, where the bride has been living.

Silk organza with appliqué rosebuds of self material fashioned the bridal gown, which was further accented by shell embroidery and its detachable train. The shoulder-length veil of English illusion was secured by a pearl and crystal crown. White daisies, carnations and orchids were combined in the colonial bridal bouquet.

JEANNIE ANDRUS of Birmingham was maid of honor and bridesmaids included Mrs. H. Thomas Meech of Kalamazoo and Sue Carol DeNio, sister of the bride. Barbara Dykstra, a cousin of the bridegroom, was flower girl. Miss Andrus and Mrs. Meech wore pink silk organza sheaths with matching overskirts, and the other two attendants wore in full-skirted dresses of white organza with touches of lace embroidered at the collar and on the skirts.

Thomas Meech was best man, and ushers were James LaDuke and Johnny Dykstra of Kalamazoo. Officiating was the bridegroom and Ralph DeNio of Birmingham, brother of the bride.

family of Orchard Hill Drive have had New Jersey relatives visiting. Their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Green and children, David, Bruce and Karen, plan to visit the Upper Peninsula after leaving the Armstrong domain.

The children of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Koehler of Far Hill Drive have been spending the summer taking courses. Bill expects to be home on Friday for two weeks after completing his studies at Purdue and Kate darts home on weekends while studying at Michigan State.

DR. AND MRS. KOEHLER and friends Mr. and Mrs. C. Dean Brown of Beverly Hills will be co-hosting a "farewell supper party" on the evening of Aug. 18 at the Koehler residence for Mr. and Mrs. William Martin of Royal Oak. The couple will be present to wish them happiness in their new home that is being completed in London.

The Charles Howson family of Lanegan Drive chose Lake of Bays, Canada, as their vacation destination for two weeks of leisurely living this year.

VACATIONING at Epworth and Ludington are Mr. and Mrs. Justus Pearson Jr. and children, Dorset, Justus III, Corrine, Townsley and Margaret, of Northover Drive. During their three-week stay they will also visit Glen Lake and Dune Crest, areas Mrs. Pearson visited as a girl.

On their return to Birmingham, the Pearsons will be moving to Bloomington, Ill., where Pearson has accepted a position as department chairman at the university. While here Pearson taught English at MSUO.

School Head Begins Duties in Southfield

SOUTHFIELD — Dr. John W. English began his duties last week as the new superintendent of Southfield schools. He has just completed five years as superintendent of the Joliet school system.

The new superintendent, 49, won his bachelor's, master's and doctor's degrees from the University of Michigan. He served as Joliet's superintendent for five years, previous to joining the Joliet post.

HE SERVED earlier as administrative assistant and director of personnel in the Flint schools and taught mechanics in that city also. Dr. English was a school principal in Pennsylvania during his career.

He is married and the father of three children.

The new school head succeeds the late Glenn Shoemals as Southfield school superintendent.

Local Boy Ribbon Winner As Car Scores for Speed

LOUISE N. KRAEMER
MI 6-9716

The annual soap box derby on Moond Road this year included one of our own boys from Beverly Hills among its entries.

Phillip Zuzema of Elizabeth was one of six boys sponsored by Patterson Chevrolet, Birmingham.

Phillip won the first heat with the fastest time in his group, 28.95. He received a blue ribbon, a tie, a model car kit and a bicycle.

Cheering him on were his mother, younger brother, Craig, and three sisters—Suzanne, Elice and Laurie. His grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Strandquist and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Erickson, and three cousins came from Muskegon for the event.

ALTHOUGH THIS is the second season for the Beverly Hills Athletic Club, this is the first year they've had a swimming team.

Under the able management of Coach Joe Anderson and his assistant, Bud Holt, they are really terrific. On July 25, they entered their first swimming meet with Woodstock Hills, on 13 Mile Road, at their pool. The weather was cold and the water rough. At one time they were 22 points behind but they kept trying and when all the points were totaled they had won the meet by one point.

THE SECOND PLACE winners of red ribbons are Chris Benson, John Buchan, Louis Collins, Rick Hatch, Pat Keil, Mark Kratzer, Chris Marks, Jean Mattice, Sue Mattie, Ron McGregor, Bob Reynolds and Joe Stuart.

The third place winners were awarded yellow ribbons. They were Kevin Gleason, Rick Hatch, Gary Deising, Terry Grady, Jeff Weston, Al Clarke, Cliff Gordon, Jill Stuart, Kathy Detwiler, Sue Mattie, Nancy Grogan and Nancy Whitley.

DR. AND MRS. Richard L. Vachy with their children—Margaret Ann, Michael, Patricia, Mary Eileen, Colleen and Larry—and two guests, Linda and Beth Ann Mayer of Detroit, recently returned from their cottage at Round Lake near Traverse City.

While there they made several interesting side trips to the Shrine at Indian River, the Sand Dunes, Crystal Lake and Torch Lake.

MR. AND MRS. Marvin Lauson and Debbie and Bryan of Elizabeth spent an enjoyable week camping at Young State Park near Boyne City. They stopped overnight in Charlevoix, viewed and crossed the Mackinac Bridge after dining in Mackinac, and visited the Mystery Spot in the Upper Peninsula. Bryan, incidentally, is one of the star pitchers for the Tigers in the Little League.

Roger B. Johnson Begins Internship

Roger B. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Johnson, 1255 Harrow Creek, recently began his internship at the University of California Medical Center in San Francisco.

Dr. Johnson is a graduate of Southold High School, Cornell University and received his medical degree from the University of Michigan. He is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha and Phi Kappa Sigma fraternities.
