Touring Texans' Time-Table Includes Short Area Stop

By VELMA McCANE
 MA 6-6530

Former area residents, Mr. and Mrs. Wendall Lloyd, formerly of Westmoor, Dr. and now living in Dallas, Tex., came back to the old neighborhood on vacation, bringing with them their four youngsters.

It was almost like "musical guesting" — just a bit difficult keeping track of everyone—but most of the time John and Wendy stayed with the Mack Pittard family; Katie visited Kathy Koszka and Susan bunked with Susan Vogelzang.

In the meantime the senior Lloyds guested with her sister, Mrs. Roger Smith, and her husband in Livonia, coming back to the Braes for frequent visits with old friends.

"A WINDY but wonderful vacation" is the description Mrs. Brooks attaches to the family's vacation at Burr Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Brooks, with their children Brian and Christine, spent three weeks sailing, swimming and lounging.

Art is an eager trout fisherman and went prepared with full gear. It was lucky, too, because a sparrow got into the cottage and the "mighty" fisherman had good use for his net to trap the bird and deliver it to the out-of-doors.

MR. AND MRS. Richard Hitchcock of Westmoor Dr. took their annual trip to Stratford, Ont., to attend the Shakespearean Festival where they enjoyed the Tempest and Macbeth.

Avid theatre goers, the Hitchcocks have been going to the festival for the past six years and rarely miss any of the local theatre endeavors. At one time they were members of a local group.

THERE IS A banner of welcome flying in the Braes No. 3 area for several new arrivals in the neighborhood.

Ether and Cliff Jack, 4867 Quanton Rd., and their four children, Robbie, 9, Comic and Christie, seven-year-old twins and Stewart, 4.

Jeanne and Jim Martin are new at 1801 Loch Lomond. They have three children, two boys and a daughter.

Carol and Jerry Matz are now living at 4871 Loch Lomond.

Sue and George Whitehead, 5581 Inkster, also contribute to the growing population. They have three children: Linda, 8, Lisa, 7, George, 4, and Tim, 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Irwin and their young son Andy are back home at Westmoor Dr. after an extended vacation.

The vacation started with a visit with Irwin's mother in Utica, N. Y. They spent two days in New York city seeing the many tourist attractions. The United Nations proved most enjoyable.

Then they made the trip down the Jersey coast sight-seeing and the real treat came when they arrived at Culpeper, Va. where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Curt Ireland.

Mr. Ireland was the best man at the Irwin's wedding, so there was much to be remembered and talked about.
