Moving to New Area Not So Strange—if You Plan Ahead

GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

Have you ever moved into a strange area? Many of us have and if we had only done what Sam and Betty Nettles did we wouldn't have felt so strange.

They learned in February that the Detroit area would be the site of their new home, so during that month they came to Bloomfield Hills and chose a lot and builder, making plans for their move.

From February until the first of June—when they moved into their new home on Echo Road—they received the Birmingham Eccentric to become acquainted with the names of neighbors and areas. So, when Mr. Nettles arrived from Decatur, Ala., they felt "at home."

MR. NETTLES is division account manager for the Wolverine Tube Division in Allen Park. He is a graduate of Auburn University and Mrs. Nettles attended Alabama State College for Women.

They are the parents of two daughters, Betty Ann, 13, and Barbara, 9. For hobbies, they enjoy bridge, swimming and, for Mr. Nettles, doing creative painting in his spare time.

THE SOCIAL committee of the Belts of Bloomfield, consisting of Dr. William C. Love, Frank Nascenzi, Mrs. Philip Hutchinson and Mrs. C. W. Hanner, have sent out their announcements about the "Family Day Picnic."

The event will be held in the subdivision on Sept. 15. Plans are formulating for entertainment of all ages. There will be games and contests in the afternoon, followed by a barbecue.

MR. AND MRS. Philip Hutchinson of Echo Road and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Minne of Kellen Court South spent a weekend camping last June and so enjoyed it that they decided to include their families on the next trip.

The two couples, with their children, Philip and Ann Hutchinson and Barbara, Mark and Ricky Minne, returned last week after traveling 1250 miles throughout the upper peninsula. Short stopovers were made in Menominee and Middle Bass Lake. Plans are now being made for a future trip in September.

FOXCRIFT MR. AND MRS. Arthur Holstein of Meadow returned home last week end following a week's stay in New York. They drove to New York with another couple and enjoyed visiting the various night clubs, shows and plays.

THE RAYMOND Darling family, with sons Ricky, Tom and Gary, returned home last week following a weekend at Bear Lake. While vacationing, they visited Mr. Darling's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Darling, formerly of Wing Lake and now of Bear Lake and of Florida.

BLOOMFIELD HEIGHTS ON JULY 27 the members of the Bloomfield Heights branch WNFCA honored their husbands at their annual pot-luck. The affair took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Haefliger on Cedar Drive.

Chairman of the "Maestri Carlo Party" was Mrs. G. Schweitzer and her co-chairman was Mrs. John Garwood. Mrs. H. J. Hood was in charge of decorations, the entertainment was scheduled by Mrs. Charles Livingston and Mrs. Angus O'Brien handled the refreshments.

Following the pot-luck dinner the members and their husbands used play money to join in a variety of games of chance. The evening was topped off with dancing.

WING LAKE MR. AND MRS. Ray Pokorny of Wing Lake Road and their children, Jeanne and Vern, returned last weekend from a two week vacation tour of Florida. They were joined there by friends from Detroit.

WING MEADOW MR. AND MRS. Joe T. Atkins of Burning Tree returned from their trip to Florida just in time to get their boys packed for camp and to take-off again.

Last weekend they stayed in Lansing. Others who joined the Atkins to relax around the pool were Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Jeffers of Valley Vista, Mr. and Mrs. Robert LaChance of Farmington and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lindow of Royal Oak.

CHELMISLEIGH Mr. and Mrs. Homer Finch and their two children of Oakleigh motored to Montreal recently to meet Mrs. Finch's mother, Mrs. John L. Pickering. She had just returned from Scotland where she spent six weeks visiting her sister. The family stayed in Montreal for a few days of shopping and sightseeing, then brought Mrs. Pickering home with them for a 10-day visit.

The Finches have been entertaining frequently this summer at informal gatherings which always include a swim in their pool and a cook-out. Recent Sunday night guests were the Robert Lundgren and John Childe families. Mrs. Finch entertained at an office last week for Mrs. Perry Vaughn who is here from Florida to visit her daughter, Mrs. Walter Guthrie of Oakleigh.

JUST BACK from a tour of the Upper Peninsula are Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Lichtwardt of N. Harsdale. The Lichtwardts and their sons, Ronald, 10, and Gregory, 8, took time first to relax for a week at Portage Point, then motored on to Sault Ste. Marie for a boat trip through the locks. Their next stop was Tabquamenon Falls and another boat trip to view the wildlife.

In "Hiawatha Land" they also saw the Pictured Rocks, then went on to the Keweenaw Peninsula and Copper Harbor. The two boys especially enjoyed a tour of a copper mine, an iron mine and an ore dock. Enroute home, the Lichtwardts spent a day at Mackinac Island.

WING LAKE Mrs. David Porter of Thurber Road returned last week from Button Bay, Vt., after two weeks at a camp nurse at the International Girl Scout Round-up. For two weeks the Scouts' tent city was the sixth largest city in Vermont, with some 10,000 Girl Scouts, Girl Guides and staffs from many nations around the globe.

Sailing, swimming, sightseeing and golfing filled every day for the Charles Dunhams of Thurber Road as they entertained house guests from Newport News, Va. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Philip M. Edge and David, Suzanne and Anita. Mrs. Edge is Mrs. Dunham's sister.

THERE'S A NEW center of attraction at the Charles Michaels home on Thurber this week. Mr. and Mrs. Michaels and their son, Chuck, 15, are busy getting acquainted with Jeffrey who was born July 31 and weighed 5 pounds, 2 ounces.

BELLS OF BLOOMFIELD Back from a fishing trip in northern Michigan are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brunette and their children, Mike, Pam and Tim, of Forest Way. The Brunettes enjoyed 10 days with rod and reel in Cedarville.

LONE PINE VILLAGE Mr. and Mrs. James Griffin of Keithdale entertained 16 couples recently at Sunday brunch.
