MRS. O'DOHERTY

Trip to Quebec Taken by Pair After Wedding

Katherine Ann Slavick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Slavick of Highland Park, Mich., spoke her marriage vows in St. Benedict's Church, Detroit, Aug. 11 to Daniel Lawrence O'Doherty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence O'Doherty of Robson Lane, Birmingham.

The bride wore a gown of Italian silk and Chantilly lace, fashioned with an extremely full skirt. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of pearls, lace and crystals, and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis, amazon lilies and ivy. Her diamond pendant and earrings were a graduation gift from her parents.

LINDA MARIE FARHAT was maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Mary Ann Okanian, Helen Masloha, Sandra Malloy, Carole Anabach, Joann Rozman, Marilyn Munday and Sue Thomas. Peggy Malloy was flower girl. They all wore white organdy, with flowers tinted to match their bouquets and hats, blue for the honor attendant and orchid for the others.

Timothy Sweeney was best man and others were Donald Malloy, George Gauthier, Steve Orlick, Steve Gurdak, Terry Murphy, Gilbert O'Doherty and Mike Grum.

A nuptial blessing was received and given by the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Orlick. Following a trip to Quebec, the couple will live in Detroit where the bridegroom will continue his studies at the Detroit College of Law.

Seattle. In Denver, Colo., they visited with Thomast and Margie McVittie, who were former neighbors on Georgia.

MR. AND MRS. RUSSELL Herzhberger and daughter Cathy of Stellmar Drive made an interesting trip through the Northwest this summer. Mr. Herzhberger makes a hobby of collecting rare rock specimens which he fashions into jewelry. The focal point of their trip was a rock show in Cody, Wyoming, where collectors convene from all over the country to exhibit their collections.

The Herzhbergs toured the Tetons in Yellowstone, Cody and Casper, Wyo., and brought back several specimens, including agate and jade.

THE BEVERLY Hills Athletic Club were hosts this week to the Cranbrook Swimming Club for a meet. Beverly won, 142 to 103. They competed against the undefeated relay team of 15 and 16-year-old boys and won before 350 to 375 spectators.

Because of the rain, the meet was ten minutes late in starting, but the rain protected the spectators and weather cleared until the events were over.

The Beverly pool kept its snafu bar open and invited all the visitors for free swimming after the contests.

THE REVEREND Robert S. Graham, B. D. Margie and children Carol, Jim and Janet from Ardmore, Okla., were honored at an open house by the William T. Shivelys on Georgia.

The Reverend Graham and family had been at the First Presbyterian Church in Birmingham until a year ago when they were transferred to the First Presbyterian Church in Ardmore.

They are spending their vacation this year visiting friends and relatives here in the East.

MR. AND MRS. BERNARD Hengesbaugh on Marguerite have an interesting house guest this week. Diane Uvick of Flint, Diane's grandfather is Judge Uvick of Detroit.

While here she has been swimming at Beverly pool and spent an enjoyable day at Bob-Lo with the Hengesbaugh family and Sandy Stuart on Marguerite.

On the way over they saw the British freighter, Montreal, which sank in the Detroit River. Bob-Lo passengers were informed it would take six months to bring it out.

THEY SPENT a full day on the Island.

The Canada games, the Canadian and the U.S.A. Olympic meet will be held in Flint this year and Diane will be one of the contestants.

Her four-tiered veil of French illusion was secured to a crown of orange blossoms and seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids, rose and stephanotis.

JUDY BYERS was her sister's maid of honor, and the only other attendant was Marilyn Parsons, sister of the bridegroom. Both girls were dressed alike in sheath gowns of powder blue tissue taffeta and wore matching blue-veiled crowns. Their flowers were white carnations and yellow baby nuns.
