Plan to Give 'Winkel-Welcome' To Manillan Exchange Student

By NITA HARD

Never a dull place, the Robert Winkel home on Franklin Hills drive is livelier than ever. Sunday afternoon daughter Barbara was hostess for a linen and personal shower honoring close friend, Bette Fraser.

This weekend a Winkel-welcome will greet American Field Service exchange student, Willie Wong, of Manila, who will spend the next school year as son Bob's "brother" at Groves High school.

The young man from the Philippines has written that his father is an engineer and his mother, an opera singer, is performing in "Madam Butterfly" currently. The Winkels are expecting Willie Friday or Saturday.

just "the high spots" like the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, Yellowstone Park — they'd love to turn around and see a few more things, soon.

AT A LUNCHEON Aug. 6, Franklin branch president of the Women's National Farm and Garden association, Mrs. Robert Swift, appointed committee chairman for the coming year.

Mrs. Henry Ark heads civic improvement; Mrs. Neil E. Warren, conservation; Mrs. N. A. Thoreson, Flower show; Mrs. Robert J. Roscoe, financial budget and Mrs. L. J. Roberts will act as historian.

Mrs. P. L. James and Mrs. Roy M. Nelson are co-chairmen of horticulture while Mrs. Robert DeLonge and Mrs. Donald Tracy will take charge of the horticultural theory program.

The committees continue with Mrs. P. H. Becker, hospitality; Mrs. Harold Shattuck, international; Mrs. F. G. Horton, marketing; Mrs. Max Bader, membership; Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, program; Mrs. Paul J. Zeigelbauer, photography; Mrs. Thomas Dudson, publicity; reservations and transportation, Mrs. C. J. Nepper and Mrs. W. L. Draper schedules arrangements of the month. WOOD CREEK FARMS

Marjorie Lam, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Lam of Westbrook, Ct., is eagerly awaited this week. Marce has spent the summer at the University of Hawaii and will have a brief time with her family before returning to Middlebury College in Vermont.

THE STAFF and committee of Boy Scout Troop 1011 and their wives held a farewell party for post-Southeastern Harold Billow Saturday. Leaving for Princeton, Mass., a new home and job, Billow was presented with a painting of his favorite Franklin scene in water colors, Ken Bristol was the artist.

The splash party and dinner took place at the Norman Krieger pool on Millbrook.

Lathrup Trees Sprayed by City

LATHRUP—Residents were advised in a newsletter this week that they may still participate in the program to spray "street" trees in the city.

Owners are advised to count the trees adjacent to their property if they wish to contribute to the program. The cost is about one-third that of having the work done by a private contractor, with the DPW spraying the trees.

Both lacinium scale insects and Dutch Elm disease are targets of the spraying program.

Final Session Is Underway At Cavell

Girls from all over metropolitan Detroit arrived at the YWCA's Camp Cavell on Lake Huron Saturday to spend the final two weeks of the 1962 regular camping season.

Localites on Vacation

Dr. Abraham Becker and children Dan and Rachel of Judy Lane, Birmingham, were frequent visitors at the outdoor skating rink at Boyne Mountain Lodge in Boyne Falls during their recent stay at the northern Michigan resort. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dennis of Greentree Road, Birmingham, preferred the golf course during their vacation at Boyne.

Farewell Party Given by Club

On Sunday morning, Aug. 12, the Business and Professional Women's Club of Birmingham met for a smorgasbord breakfast. The occasion was to bid farewell to a charter member of the club, Bonnie Crawford, who is leaving soon to reside in Florida.

Bonnie has been a resident of Birmingham for many years. She was instrumental in the organization of the club.

The president, Madeline View, joined members in wishing Bonnie much happiness in her new surroundings.

Visitors Here From Pensacola

Eric Matus, formerly of Birmingham now of Pensacola, Fla., and his son, eight-year-old Micky, are in Birmingham visiting Micky's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Matus of Randall Court.

Among those who have entertained for Mr. Matus, who will leave the end of the week for home, are Mr. and Mrs. William Reddig and the William Hoofnagles.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Carlisle of Bloomfield Township announce the engagement of their daughter Nancy Kay to William Graham MacLean, son of Mr. and Mrs. William MacLean, of Evanston, Ill.

After graduation from Birmingham High School in 1954, Nancy attended the University of Colorado, in Boulder, Colo., for one year and was graduated from Montclair Junior College, Alton, Ill., in 1956. She was employed in the Royal Oak office of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. until 1960, when she moved to San Francisco, Calif.

She became a stewardess for the Flying Tiger Line in the Pacific area and was a frequent visitor in Tokyo, Hawaii, Alaska, Australia and other interesting spots.

Mr. McLean is a graduate of Yale University, '58, and is presently employed in Tahoe City, Calif.

The wedding will take place in Tahoe City and is planned for Oct. 6.
