Roberts, 4710 Eastmoor, high honor; Donna Ruth Schwab, 3050 Oakhill, high honor; Barbara Jean Somner, 684 Madison, high honor; Nancy Linn Stewart, 130 Waddington Road, high honor.

Mrs. Hayden

Trip to Jamaica Follows Ceremony

The First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham was the scene of the marriage Aug. 18 of Nancy Lynn Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murray E. Stewart of Waddington Road and Robert Weber Hayden, son of J. Page Hayden of Cincinnati, and Mrs. Hayden.

Dr. W. Glen Harris officiated at the morning ceremony, which was followed by a luncheon at De-on Gables.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore white silk organza over taffeta, the scoop neckline outlined with beige-inked Alençon lace and with large medallions of the same lace trimming the bell skirt. A matching lace pillbox held her finger-veil of illusion, and she carried a bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids, Stephanotis and ivy.

MRS. JAMES Cardell of Birmingham was matron of honor, and bridesmaids* included Mrs. Robert Elliott and Mrs. Joseph P. Hayden Jr., of Cincinnati, and Helen Lee Strader of Toledo. They were all dressed in apricot silk organza sheaths over taffeta and carried crescent-shaped bouquets of mums in autumn shades. Joseph Page Hayden, Jr. was best man for his brother and ushers were Gary Cobb and Robert Elliott of Cincinnati; Robert Lovell of Hamilton, Ohio; William Riblet of Elkhart, Ind.; Richard Schlier of Portsmouth, Ohio; Murray Stewart, Jr., of Birmingham and Lowell Strong, of Cincinnati.

Mrs. Stewart wore pale green silk linen for her daughter's wedding, and Mrs. Hayden was dressed in two-piece costume of beige silk. Both mothers wore orchids.

Following a wedding trip to Jamaica, the couple will be at home in Cincinnati.

B'ham Man Gets Commission of 2nd Lieutenant

Stephen Z. Surridge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Surridge, 986 N. Glenhurst Dr., Birmingham, was commissioned a Second Lieutenant Transportation Corp. United States Army Reserve recently at the closing of the Reserve Officers Training Corps Camp, Fort Devens, Mass.

Lieutenant Surridge is a 1962 graduate of Yale University where he majored in Economics. Lieutenant General Garrison H. Davidson, Commanding General, First United States Army administered the oath of office, delivered the graduation address and presented awards.

Surridge was one of 1800 ROTC cadets who completed the six-week tactical, individual and weapons training camp and one of 128 college or university graduates to be commissioned.

Betrothed

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Guest of Covington Road, Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Julia Forsyth, to Frederick Gustavus Bussler III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Bussler Jr. of Brantway, Birmingham. Mr. Bussler attends the University of Michigan and is affiliated with Sigma Chi fraternity. Miss Guest is affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma at the U. of M. The wedding is planned for next summer.

New Addition To '66' Class

James Henry Bradburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Bradburn, 1400 N. Gilegarry Rd., Birmingham, has been accepted as a member of the Class of 1966 at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, according to James F. Newman, director of admissions.

About 815 members of this freshman class are due on the Rensselaer campus Sept. 12 for orientation period. Classes will start Sept. 17. He is a graduate of E. W. Seaholm High School.

MRS. FULLER

Carol Staeheli Speaks Vows

At a double-ring ceremony solemnized July 28 in Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Church, Carol Jane Staeheli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Staeheli of W. 14 Mile Road, Birmingham, spoke her vows to Milford George Fuller. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Milford G. Fuller of Melton, Birmingham.

The bride wore silk organza and lace over taffeta with a scalloped lace neckline and full-skirted train. The lace bodice was accented with tiny pearl beads and scattered lace panels. Her crown of pearl and crystal was diamond-shaped and attached to a bouffant veil. She carried white carnations and greens.

HONOR attendant was Carol Ann Staeheli who wore aqua silk organza over matching taffeta with an aqua taffeta bow and short veil headpiece. Her flowers were yellow fugu mums and sweetheart roses.

The bridesmaids were Nicholina Cardillo of Birmingham and Marilyn Wanagat of Dearborn. Laurie Goormastic of Dearborn was the flower girl. Their powns matched that of the maid of honor.

Allan LaForge of Detroit served as best man. Guests were seated by Gary Fuller of Birmingham and Kenneth Drouillard of Royal Oak.

FOR HER daughter's wedding, Mrs. Staeheli selected a shrimp silk organza sheath. The groom's mother wore an apricot silk organza sheath with over skirt.

Devon Gables was the scene of the reception. The couple will make their home in Birmingham.
