Five Y-Teen Area Delegates

Five Birmingham area girls will serve as delegates to the annual Y-Teen conference Sunday at the YWCA's Camp Cavell. They are Carol E. Yanters, 2250 Buckingham, Birmingham; and Southfield residents Diane Bogatko, 18412 Stratford, Lynn Hardisty, 22450 Fairway Drive; Marilyn K. Hill, 24320 Edgemont; and Joann Sullinger, 23189 Ranch Hill.

"PIECES FOR PEACE" is the theme of the conference which will be led in four morning assemblies by the Rev. Daniel Blazier of the First Christian Church, Massillon, Ohio. Conference delegates representing the senior Y-Teen clubs, sponsored by the seven branches of the YWCA of Metropolitan Detroit, will discuss leadership problems and club projects, enjoy cabin chats, bench cook-outs and the many recreational facilities offered by Cavell. Before their adjournment on Friday, August 31, they will elect their new Metropolitan Y-Teen council president and vice president, and will choose their program emphasis for the school year of 1962-63.

Good Ole Purdue U.

Four area students participated in the advance enrollment for new students at Purdue University this summer! They are: Diane Kay Dupuis, 1250 Romney Road; Linda Grace Slough, 10997 Madeline; William H. Pettibone, Jr., 1400 Epping Lane; and Rene Doria Hunter, 30800 Rock Creek Drive.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton C. LaMotte of Birmingham announce the engagement of their daughter, Carol Ann, to Russell Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude D. Alexander of Owosso, Mich. Both young people are attending Central Michigan University. Date for their wedding will be announced later.

Have You Met . . .

The residents of 574 Argyle, Birmingham? Mr. and Mrs. Robert McNutt and six month-old son Mike moved from Royal Oak on July 1. McNutt is an industrial equipment salesman employed by the Wolverine Tractor and Equipment Co. He was graduated from Denison University and is affiliated with Phi Delta Theta. He is also a member of the Air National Guard. His wife, Sukie, attended Carroll College in Wisconsin for two years. Their hobbies include golf, tennis and skiing.

Local Man To Be Wed In Norway

A wedding to be solemnized Sept. 8 in Oslo, Norway, is of interest locally since one of the principals, Duncan Glehrst Hudson, Jr., lives in Birmingham.

Duncan, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Hudson of S. Bates Street, will exchange marriage vows with Ramona Grinde, daughter of Petter Grinde and the late

To Marry

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Dallas Bollinger of Birmingham announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Joan, to Stewart Harris Hussey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harris Hussey of Terrace Park, Ohio. The bride-elect attended Western Michigan University and her fiance is a graduate of Harvard. He completed a four-year tour of active duty Aug. 1 as lieutenant (j.g.) in the U.S. Navy's Underwater Demolition Teams. He will attend the Graduate School of Business at Stanford this fall. Plans have been made for a September wedding.

MISS GRINDE

Mrs. Grinde, in the bride-elect's home, Koksivika, in Tingvoll.

After traveling through southern Europe, the couple will be at home in October at 43 Silurvien, Oslo.

The bridegroom-elect has been located in Oslo for the past year on a Fulbright Fellowship. He is now associated with the architectural firm of Cappelen and Rodahl in Oslo.

Preceding his residency abroad, Duncan attended the University of Michigan for three years, where he was a member of Delta Chi Fraternity.

He studied a year at the School of Architecture and Design in London, England, and was then employed for a year by Eero Saarinen and Associates. He was graduated in May, 1961 from the School of Architecture and Design, North Carolina State University, Raleigh, N. C.

MRS. BERNDT

W. C. Berndts Go North to Honeymoon

Following a dinner at Rotunda Inn for members of the family and close friends, Mr. and Mrs. William Charles Berndt left on a wedding trip to northern Michigan, after which they will be at home on Eton Road in Birmingham.

The former Joan Gasaway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Griffith Gasaway of Woodlawn Court, spoke her marriage vows Aug. 18 in the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold W. Berndt of E. Maple Road. A floor-length gown of Rochelle lace fashioned the bridal robes which were made with long, pointed sleeves and a scoop neckline. A bouffant veil was secured to a crown of patterned pearls, and the bridal bouquet combined white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

MRS. RANSEL K. EVANS of Detroit was matron of honor, and bridesmaids included Eunice Richards of Milan, Mich., and Hertha Adler of Grosse Pointe Woods. They were dressed in blue lace, wore matching blue satin petal head pieces and carried pink carnations and carnat roses.

Ronald Phillips of Belding, Mich., was best man, and ushers were William Holmes, Dale Bartlett and Robert Kutscher, all of Birmingham, and Speers Crumrine of Detroit. Immediately following the service, a reception was given in the church Fellowship Hall.
