Couple Exchange Vows In Northern Michigan

Mary Beth Guild, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce H. Guild of Iron Mountain, chose a gown of tissue silk, trimmed with Valenciennes lace, for her wedding Saturday to Daniel Walter Davison of Birmingham. The double-ring ceremony took place at Trinity Methodist Church in Iron Mountain.

The groom is the son of Mrs. T. Walter Davison of Birmingham and the late Mr. Davison.

The bride's gown had a scoop neckline and elbow-length sleeves, with an empire bodice trimmed in the lace. The full princess lines ended in a cathedral train. Her veil of silk tulle was held by a wreath of orange blossoms and pearls. She carried a cascade arrangement of orchids.

THE HONOR ATTENDANT was Martha Johnson of Iron Mountain who wore a periwinkle blue silk organza dress with a cannone top, modified bell skirt and a back-buttoned jacket. Her hairpiece was of white flowers with a circular veil and her accessories were American beauty and sweetheart roses with feathered curtains.

Waiting guests to match that of the maid of honor were bridesmaids Anita L. McCallan of Taylor, and Sharon Radtzyk of Bay City.

The best man was Thomas G. Farnough of Detroit. Guests were ushered to their seats by Patricia Bohagen and Barrett C. McGeogor of Iron Mountain and R. Cady Meadows of Albion.

THE BRIDES' mother wore blue lace and silk shantung. The groom's mother chose a late blue lace and silk chiffon gown. Both mothers wore roses.

Following a reception at Pine Grove Country Club, the couple left for a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Canada. The bride wore a blue silk suit for her wedding trip.

MRS. DAVISON

The couple will live in Birmingham.

Couple Wed By Father of Bridegroom

Linda Ann Janke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth K. Janke, 506 Oakland, Birmingham, became the bride Saturday of Philip Hoyt Burgess at the Lake Louise Methodist Camp Tennant Chapel, Boyne Falls.

The groom is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Burgess of Detroit. Mr. Burgess performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride chose an almonet lace and silk organza gown with cap sleeves, scoop neck and a waltz length skirt. Her veil of silk tulle was attached to a lace cap with seed pearls. She carried white gladiolus and ivy.

THE SISTER OF the bride, Barbara Janke, was the maid of honor and wore emerald green silk organza over tulle in a sheath style. Mary Elizabeth Janke served as junior bridesmaid and wore a dress of green silk organza.

The groom's brother, Larry Burgess, of Hayward, Calif., was best man and guests were ushered by Ronald Brown of Royal Oak and Lee Osburn of Flint.

THE BRIDES' mother wore an aqua brocade sheath. The mother of the groom chose a brown and gold print chiffon gown.

A reception at Kresge Lodge followed the ceremony.

The bride wore a beige, glen-plaid silk suit with brown accessories for her wedding trip to Isle Royale National Park.

The couple will live in Livonia.

Wed in Royal Oak

Shirley Anne Webster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Selon J. Webster of Berkley, became the bride Aug. 4 in a morning ceremony of Thomas A. Stacey Jr. at Our Lady of LaSalle Church.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Stacey of Niagara Lane, Bloomfield Township.

THE BRIDE chose a floor length, full-skirted gown of midnight silk organza with a sapphire neckline. Her bouffant veil was secured to a crystal crown and she carried a semicircle of white roses.

The nation of honor, Mrs. Edward Bishop, cousin of the bride, wore an orchid silk organza gown with bell-shaped skirt and elbow-length sleeves and carried pale yellow carnations in a Colonial bouquet.

The groom's sister, Barbara Stacey, and Catherine Webster, sister of the bride, were bridesmaid and junior bridesmaid, respectively.

HENRY HAINENT was best man and the ushers were Gerald Hill and Perry Phelan, all of Detroit.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Webster wore turquoise silk with matching accessories and a corsage of sweetheart roses. The groom's mother chose a olive green and pink sheath with white accessories. Her corsage was pink sweetheart roses.

The reception after the ceremony was held in the church hall.

For her wedding trip to Seattle, San Francisco and Lake Tahoe, the bride chose a beige linen dress, with orange accents.

The couple will live in Royal Oak.
