

Open Thurs. & Fri. 'Til 9 P.M.

Pure fluff
12.98

Hand made in Italy . . . fluffy, featherweight and snug as a down comforter . . . deserves a warm welcome. Rich autumn colors in three magnificent styles, in mohair, wool and nylon. Sizes 36 to 40.

Phone and Mail.
Jordan 6-8777

Kaybamm
166 W. MAPLE BIRMINGHAM

B'field Hills Hires 51 New Teachers

Fifty-one new teachers will be teaching in the Bloomfield Hills School District when classes start Sept. 6. There also will be three new principals.

The newly appointed principals are Glenn Bedell, Bloomfield Hills Junior High School; William McGuire, East Hills Junior High School; and Richard Thomas, George Gough Booth Elementary School.

Nine of the new teachers will be instructing at Bloomfield Hills High School. Subjects covered will be social studies, English, industrial arts, typing, accounting and lean of girls.

THE NEW teachers are Frederick Boardman, Mrs. Ann Bird, Mrs. Sheila Cooper, Keith Fenton, Miss Dolores Larson, Ernest Shogin, Mrs. Dona Stenstrom, William Van Every and Mrs. Kathryn Ann Willemann.

Seven new teachers will start work at the new East Hills Junior High School. They will teach art, physical education, French, mathematics, music, science and biology.

The new teachers are Miss Janet Avton, Miss Maralynn Conway, Mrs. Frances Easter, Paul A. Gwin, Robert Lively, Jr., Mrs. Madge Sturdy and Dennis B. Travis.

At the other junior high, Bloomfield Hills, there will be six new instructors. They will teach art, physical education, French, English, Spanish and shop.

THE NAMES of these teachers are Mrs. Victoria Brykalski, Miss Maureen Drake, Guy H. Morel, Mrs. Helen Silcott, Mrs. Patricia S. Heaphy and Reid Straub.

At Booth Elementary School there will be five new teachers. Their names and the grade they will be teaching are as follows: Miss Judith Ann Boardman, third grade; Miss Susan Conway, second grade; Charles M. Dorsey, fourth grade; Mrs. Netta Dresser, sixth grade; and Mrs. Kathleen Porterfield, first grade.

FOUR NEW teachers each will be at Pine Lake Elementary School, Wing Lake Elementary and Eastover Elementary School.

At Pine Lake Elementary they are Mrs. Geraldine Brown, first grade; Miss Nancy Rouse, fourth grade; and Mrs. Carol Jean Willett, kindergarten.

The new teachers at Wing Lake Elementary are Mrs. Florence Banker, fifth grade; Miss Barbara Ann Figlar, fourth grade; Robert N. Thomas, sixth grade; and Mrs. Emma Jean Walters, fifth grade.

At Eastover they are Mrs. Helen Butler, fifth grade; Mrs. Roella Greenlee, first grade; Mrs. Pearl Jane Hackett, kindergarten; and Miss Margaret Parry, first grade.

THREE NEW teachers, Miss Barbara Montoth, Mrs. Jo Ann E. Sawney and Mrs. Janet Lee Thomas, will be at Hickory Grove Elementary School; and three others, Mrs. Ida Jane Cameron, Miss Edna L. Latt and Miss Diana Stokes, will be at Conant Elementary School.

One new teacher, Mrs. Jean M. Ugehart, will teach fourth grade at Vaughn Elementary School.

In addition, three others, Miss Muriel Embree, Mrs. Airo Hill and Albert Kell, will serve as special teachers, instructing at all the elementary schools from week to week.

Mrs. Bette Ann Rosenthal and Mrs. Lois Smith Walker, also special teachers, will teach speech correction at the various schools.

Red Buttons, now a big movie star, buys 10 new suits at a time—and remembers the Catskill and burlesque days when he had one suit!

college-career

fashions

ENJOY A HIGHLAND FLING IN FALL FLANNELS . . .

Gay tartans herald the clan in a swirl of pleats on the skirt and top it with a young demi-fitted jacket. The plaid pants are smooth-fitting and gently tapered. Cameron, McKenzie, Graham, Brown Watch. Sizes 8 thru 16. Also Bermuda Length culotte & Skirt culotte in solid color flannel. Also many dresses.

NEW, NEW SLACKS

Choose from a wide variety of styles, wool, Orlon Blends, Corduroy and More — in plaids, checks, strips and solids.

Smart Roll Sleeve BLOUSE

with Bermuda Collar in Variety of Fabrics and Colors . . .

$4⁹⁵ & up

Glove Soft Leather

BOOTLET

"Just the thing for Back to College"

Choice of Colors

$4⁹⁵

184 Pierce

MI 6-1225

Birmingham