'Earn Merit Badges' Scouts Say During Week Camp-Out

By GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

Twenty-seven boys of Boy Scout Troop 1022 participated in the week campout at the D-A Camp at Metamor recently. The boys were accompanied by Don Porritt of the Pontiac School System.

Mr. Porritt acted as their counselor. He also had the help of many fathers who came to camp one night to watch their boys participate in the activities. The scouts worked toward earning their merit badges, passing life saving and advanced swimming tests, rifle range activities and enjoyed meals served from the "heater stack."

BOB KOCH received the Order of the Arrow and Don Daggett advanced to become a Life Scout. Russ Stanford, Chris Sewell, Don Daggett and Bob Koch received merit badges for the one-mile swim.

Messieurs Don Lau, Bob Glenn, Russ Stanford and Bill McCormick accompanied the scouts on an overnight campout.

Also accompanying the convoy were four barros laden with the "gear." Everything went according to schedule until the campout lost some of the gear crossing a stream.

THE FIRST troop meeting is scheduled for September 11 at Conant School. Heading the scout committee for this coming year will be Scout Master Bill McCormick and he will be assisted by Russ Stanford.

Chairman of the training and advancement committee will be Bill Dull; H. A. Preis, treasurer; Bob Glenn, secretary and membership; Bob Yaezjian, health and safety chairman; Bob Koch, outdoor chairman and troop equipment chairman.

Chairman of the scout committee is Ed Sewell, Gene Bordinet vice chairman and Vince Sanderson chairman of the entertainment committee.

FOXROCK

Plans are nearing completion for the Foxcroft picnic scheduled for Sept. 9 on the commons. Chairmen of the committee are Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Campbell of Crabtree Road.

Assisting them are the Robert Morrison, Robert H. Smith, C. J. Van Halteren, Robert H. Burnes, Thomas Miners, Mrs. R. E. L. Stanford, Mrs. Peter Blom, Mrs. John Black, Mrs. Harold Twitneyer and Mrs. Richard Flick.

Also on the committee are Frank Gadd, Jack Kershaw and Don Lau.

Assisting with the children's games will be Joe Morrison, Gretchen Twitneyer and Janie Van Halteren.

The festivities will begin at 3 p.m. and will include a bike parade, baseball game, prizes for the children, dinner and dancing.

For the past two weeks, Mr.

and Mrs. Frank H. Gaya of Crabtree Road have been host to Mrs. Gaya's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kinsley and their five children from New Jersey.

Mrs. Elizabeth Sandberg, Mrs. Gaya's mother, drove to Michigan with the Kinsleys and Alex, Elizabeth Anne, Christopher, Jonathan and Linnaea. The guests enjoyed touring Cranbrook, trips to Belle Isle and the beach and the zoo.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Thompson of North Williamsbury bid all their friends in Birmingham good-bye last week. The Thompsons sold their home, bought an air stream travel trailer and started on their tour of the United States. They intend to do most of their sightseeing in the west.

DELLS OF BLOOMFIELD

Mr. and Mrs. William McQueen of Wing Lake Road celebrated their 10th wedding anniversary by inviting about 130 friends to join them at a housewarming party in their new home.

CHALMERS LAKE

Recently returned to their Lakewood Road home is the H. Harris Goodman family. Mrs. Goodman and her four daughters, June, Sherian, Jenny and Susan, have spent the last month as houseguests of Mrs. Goodman's mother, Mrs. John Kallina of Garwood, Tex.

During their stay, Mrs. Goodman enjoyed visiting with her two brothers and their families. When Mr. Goodman joined his family for the last week, they journeyed to San Marcos which is Mr. Goodman's home town. They were joined there by his mother and sister for a picnic.

Mrs. Kallina drove home for a two-month stay with the family.

MR. AND MRS. Alvin C. Clark of Wing Lake Road returned recently from a week's camping trip. They took in Niagara Falls, the Finger Lakes, Lake Placid, the Thousand Islands, the Adirondack Mountains and returned home through Canada.

'And Away We Go'

Birmingham artist Robert Thom designed this "fine feathered" bird to heckle members of the Birmingham Rotary Club who insist on ducking out of the weekly meetings early. Artist Thom, according to reliable sources, has been known to be an "early bird" himself.

Many Local 4-H Members Win County Fair Awards

By VELMA McCANE
MA 6-6330

The Oakland County 4-H Fair is over and its "best time" for a group of 500 but happy 4-H'ers. In the animal family, grand champion Hampshire ewe, reserve champion rain hound went to James and John Drury. Champion and reserve champion for individual fat hog showed that James Drury has cared well for his swine.

Cathy Nevens placed third in the junior pleasure class with her horse. In the dog obedience novice class, Nancy Nielson placed second and Pam Barnes third. In the intermediate class, Rickiann Hoxie placed fourth and Kris Simonson was fifth.

UNDER THE Domestic heading, Rickiann Hoxie won top honors for her exhibit in creative cookery. Winning the first three places in cake decorating were Mary Jane Thorp, Bridget Puhl and Peggy LePehr. Nancy Pohl placed honor roll in first year foods and as did Linda Jacobson in creative foods.

In clothing, Nancy Nielson, Barbara Arnold, Diane Ouchout, Diane Mackela, Vicki Hotzack, Nancy Lawrence, Sally Rinze, Mary Jane Thorp, Marilyn Mihay and Linda Jacobson all placed in the honor roll division.

In the dress review, Nancy Nielson and Linda Jacobson received dress review pins, with the top fashion award and placing going to Linda Jacobson.

SHERLY MAUND'S exhibit on home safety rated honor roll and state show.

All of the entries in junior leadership won blue ribbons. They included entries by Kris Simonson, Barbara Hillier, Linda Jacobson, Eric Woodward, Douglas Norland and Rickiann Hoxie. Rickiann also placed honor roll.

Douglas Norland placed first and Chuck McCracken second in the automotive drivers contest. Douglas also placed third in the tractor operators contest.

Other winners were Randy Jacobson, gun safety, honor roll and state show; Marilyn Mihay, photography, honor roll and state show; Mary Beth Rinze and Alice Schrader, potted plants; and Barbara Dunn and Susan Alix, honor roll in knitting.

THE GROUP was well represented in the fun department too. Rickiann Hoxie was chosen "Fair Queen." Riding on the winning float—whose theme was "4-H is a challenge"—were Bill Schrader, representing model business; Galen Puhl, state show; Nancy Nielson, life; and Bridget Puhl, share the fun.

A walking unit, with the theme 4-H is on the march accompanied the float. The winning float and persons connected with it were invited to participate in the Michigan State Fair parade.

Clantha Bette, Bridget Puhl, Claudia Wise and Cheryl Mulland, in the Carousel Dance, and Susie Alix and Barbara Wald in a novelty act, were in the share the fun acts in the district contest on Aug. 13.

MR. AND MRS. Robert Lund and children, Randy, John and Bobby of Barramoor Rd., enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Krause at the Krause cottage at Heart Lake. A side trip to Hidden Valley and a dinner date with Bob's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Lund, were extras to make everything pleasant.

RICKWOOD

Mrs. John Scialli of Raven Rd. recommends that every one take a trip to Europe for a true and lasting thrill. She and her husband flew by jet to London, where they visited such places as Madam Toussards Wax Museum and Westminster Abby. One night while walking along one of the London streets they ran into old friends from Oregon.
