'Camp Nissokone... We're On Our Way!'

Birmingham Family Attend National Baptist Conference

The Rev. and Mrs. William W. Sutterlin and family, 644 S. Bates, were among 500 educators and families attending the national conference on Christian education at Green Lake Wisconsin this week.

The 1,100-acre assembly grounds of the American Baptist Convention was the site for the conference.

Rev. Sutterlin is among the 40 Baptist leaders at the conference from across the nation.

MORNING lecturer on the conference theme "Christ Confronts the Community" is Dr. Carlyle Marney, minister of Meyers Park Baptist Church of Charlotte, N. C. Evening speaker is Ernest E. Kleim, minister of First Baptist Church of Cambridge, Mass.

Conferees have chosen special courses of study this week from two dozen areas of Christian education. Among those leading are: Dr. C. Adrian Heaton, president of California Baptist Seminary; his wife, Dr. Ada Beth Heaton, also of California Seminary; and Edwin L. McClain, director of Christian education in Calvary Church in Washington, D. C.

COURSES include planning for children, youth and adult education in the church; implications of theology for Christian education; church and the exceptional person; and career opportunities through counseling with youth.

Afternoon conferences deal specifically in helping the Christian education workers to be more skilled in the use of teaching methods for all age levels.

The conference ended Aug. 25.

Green Lake includes varied recreational facilities in addition to numerous meeting areas. More than 35,000 persons attended conferences last year.

Rev. David Read Visits Kirk-in-the-Hills Pulpit

REV. READ

A widely - known author and preacher, the Rev. David H. C. Read, pastor of Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church in New York City, will be in the pulpit of the Kirk In The Hills at 9:30 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. Sept. 2. His subject will be "The Sacred and The Secular."

A native of Scotland, Dr. Read was educated there and in France. During World War II, he was a British army chaplain and a prisoner of war from June, 1940, until April, 1945.

HE WAS chaplain to the University of Edinburgh and later to H. M. The Queen in Scotland before being called to the New York church in 1956. His most recent book is a collection of sermons, "I Am Persuaded."

The full chancel choir of the Kirk will sing at both services.

St. Stephen's Episcopal Church School To Open

St. Stephen's Episcopal church school will open Sept. 9 and the co-operative nursery will open its doors to 20 children Sept. 11.

The church school, for children ages three through fifth-grade, will be held in the parish house during the 10 a.m. service each Sunday.

Space limitations will limit the six through ninth grade student group to attendance on Saturday only, 11 a.m. to 12 noon. The class for senior high students will be held Monday evening, 7-9 p.m., beginning Sept. 15.

THE MOREHOUSE-Barlow curriculum will be followed again this year for the church school.

The cooperative nursery school is open to all children in the community regardless of denomination. Certified by the state, it will follow the same vacation schedule as the Bloomfield Hills school system.

Three and four-year-olds will gather in the parish house Tuesday and Thursday, 9 a.m.-12 noon.

MRS. GEORGE Jones, teacher in charge, will be assisted by three mothers for each session.

Mrs. Thomas Hart, attendance coordinator, announced that although full enrollment has been reached, waiting list registrations are still being accepted.

10,000 Faithful Attend Dedication

An estimated crowd of 10,000 attended the blessing of the cornerstone for the Shrine-Chapel of Our Lady of Orchard Lake recently.

Rev. Jerome Juchniewicz, pastor of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church, Wyandotte, was celebrant. In assistance were Rev. Joseph Sito, St. Louis the King Parish, Detroit, and Rev. Mr. Ronald Modras, Dearborn.

Following the ceremonies there was a solemn procession to the grotto of Our Lady of the Orchard Lake school's campus.

SERMON WAS preached by Rev. Zdzislaus Peszkowski, professor of Polish at Orchard Lake.

Crowning of the Virgin was done by Miss Maria Ann Niemiec of Wyandotte. Crown-bearer was Miss Judy Kolodziej, Wyandotte.

The cornerstone ceremony was held in connection with this year's pilgrimage and retreat of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Orchard Lake Schools.

Eccentric Closed Saturday, Monday

The Birmingham Eccentric offices will be closed Saturday, Sept. 1, and Monday, Sept. 3, for the Labor Day holiday.

All news contributors and advertisers are urged to get their copy into our offices at 1225 E. Bowers, Birmingham, as early as possible.

First Baptist Mission Society Begins Season

"The Woman's Mission Society of the First Baptist Church is meeting Sept. 6 to begin its year of spiritual growth and missionary work.

The Lydia Circle, Mrs. James McGuire, chairman, 792 Fairfax, will serve a coffee hour at 9:30 a.m. in the church parlors.

This hour of fellowship will be to introduce the new members and acquaint them with the work of the society.

A GENERAL business meeting will follow with Mrs. Henry Bardsley, 766 Chesterfield, presiding. Plans for the year will be presented, and their relationship to the theme of "Love."

The dedication of the love gifts and missionary offerings will be given by Mrs. William Sutterlin, 644 S. Bates. The meeting will be closed with devotions.

Holy Name Women Join 'Stock' Drive

The first fall activity of the Holy Name altar society will be to seek the support of the women of the parish in the forthcoming National Council of Catholic Women convention. It will be held in Detroit Nov. 3-7.

"Shares of stock" will be sold. The "dividends" from this stock will entitle the "stockholder" to be admitted to various activities before and during the convention. The shares, however, do not take the place of the registration fee.

Stock may be purchased from Guild Chairmen or from Mrs. John T. Higgins, 180 Pilgrim, Birmingham.

Be unselfish. That is the first and final commandment for those who would be useful and happy in their usefulness.

Why Does a Changing Market Affect Some Investors more than others?

Changing market values in securities can be attributed to many factors — industry trends, changing patterns in consumer demand, competition for market position, new product developments, foreign competition - to name just a few. That's why regular evaluation of your portfolio is an essential part of a sound investment program, and often the important difference between the highly successful investor and the average one.

For a timely, helpful discussion of how changing markets may be affecting your stock and bond investments, may we suggest a visit with one of our registered representatives. A few minutes of your time spent now reviewing your holdings with a Watling, Lerchen representative, could mean a more satisfactory and profitable investment future for you.
