

Parties Honor Jan Lynch As Wedding Day Nears

Jan Elizabeth Lynch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Webster Lynch, 151 Covington Road, is being honored at a number of parties as her September 8 wedding approaches.

She will become the bride of William Clonens Herrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ramsdell Herrick of Grosse Pointe Farms.

MRS. HERRICK introduced Jan to her fiancé at a tea at her home on July 29. Showers began Aug. 9 when Jan was feted at a patio supper and kitchen shower at the home of Mrs. John D. McBrien of Horseshoe Road, Bloomfield Hills. Lucy McBrien, who will be one of Jan's bridesmaids, assisted her mother at the party.

On Aug. 11, a luncheon and miscellaneous shower was given by Mrs. Andrew G. Brodie and Mrs. Thomas E. Sheehan at Mrs. Brodie's Tottenham Road home.

The bride's parents are planning the reception on the day of the wedding at their home. On the following day, Mr. and Mrs. Judge W. Beaman will give a luncheon for the wedding party, family, friends, and out-of-town guests at their Tottenham Road home.

New Son

A son, Donald, Howard, was born Aug. 14 to Mr. and Mrs. Peter H. Plamstead of Level Oak. The baby's mother is the former Jenny Lee Strickland. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Plamstead of South Glenhurst Drive, Birmingham.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell F. Bueche, 6828 Cedarhurst Drive, Birmingham and their children, Denise, 8; Barbara, 7; and Doreen, 4; Bueche is the manager of the Detroit district office of the Allis-Chalmers Mfg. Co. and is a graduate of the University of Notre Dame. The family moved here from Cleveland, O., on June 20.

JAN and her fiancé were guests of honor at a dinner party Aug. 19, given by the Louis A. Batters, the Wendell G. Motts, the Wayne M. Sjales, and the James W. Gambs at the home of the Gambs on Holiday Drive.

On Sunday, Sarah Kinsley Lynch, who will be her bridesmaid, will host a dinner for the bridesmaids at her home on Covington Road.

Birmingham Girl Married In Double-Ring Ceremony

MRS. COOK

The marriage of Judith Kaye Mikulas and Harold William Cook was solemnized Saturday at an evening wedding in the First Presbyterian Church, Birmingham, with Dr. W. Glen Harris officiating at the double-ring ceremony. Dr. Harris was assisted by the Rev. Henry I. Voelker, grandfather of the bride.

She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William Mikulas of Birmingham. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Cook of Marshall are the parents of the groom.

FOR HER wedding, the bride wore a princess style, floor-length gown of white peau de soie with silk lunnet inset at the neck and long pointed sleeves. Her train was cathedral length, dropping from a shoulder yoke in two panels. She chose a Granada lace mantilla and carried a prayer book to which a white orchid and stephanotis were attached.

Her maid of honor, Linda Bartlett of St. Louis, Mich., wore a waltz length dress of daffodil yellow, summer satin with seashell neckline and long sleeves. Her crown of matching satin was attached to a scalloped veil.

SIMILAR GOWNS were worn by the bridesmaids but were seafoam in color, with accessories to match. The attendants wore Perry Maguire of Auburn, N. Y., and Susan Trinity and Susan Voelker of Detroit, cousins of the bride. The groom's sisters, Carol Ann and Jeanne Cook, were junior bridesmaids.

Kenneth Cook of Alma served as his brother's best man. Guests were ushered to their seats by William L. and Roger W. Mikulas, brothers of the bride, and by the groom's brothers, Richard and Jerry Cook, and Dennis Cook.

MRS. MIKULAS chose a turquoise, floor-length summer satin dress with beaded top for her daughter's wedding. The groom's mother wore a floor-length dress of dusty rose color with a lace top and chiffon skirt.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church parlor.

For her wedding trip to northern Michigan, the bride wore a Kelly green and white, three piece knit suit with black accessories. She and her husband will make their home in Bowling Green, O.

MRS. GODDAMER

Evening Rites Unite Couple In Marriage

Christ Church Cranbrook was the scene Saturday evening of a double-ring ceremony in which Ann Linda Lawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Lawson of Orchard Lake, and Rolf Wallace Goddamer were united in marriage. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Goddamer of Orchard Lake.

The Rev. John W. Wiele officiated at the evening wedding.

Silk organza with an imported lace yoke was chosen by the bride for her wedding gown which was embroidered with seed pearls. Appliques of lace and pearls accented the floor-length skirt which descended into a long train.

Her headpiece of silk organza flowers and sequins with pearls was attached to a shoulder-length veil. She carried white orchids on a prayer book.

SHARRON JANALS of Grosse Pointe served as honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Jill Lawson of Orchard Lake, sister of the bride; Nancy Goddamer, sister of the groom; Genevieve Popovici of Grosse Pointe; Susan Ackles of Lathrup; Diane Steinorth of Presque Isle; and Nancy Anderson of Herscher, Ill.

The honor attendant's gown, an aqua blue taffeta sheath and overskirt, matched that of the bridesmaids. Their headbands were aqua bows attached to veils.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Boyer of Cranbrook Village; Kimberly Boyer, was the flower girl.

THE BEST MAN was David Mutchler of Sparta, Charles and James Lawson, brothers of the bride, Fred Bigelow of Flint; John Newton and John Hayland of Orchard Lake, and Bill Bratticum of Albion served as ushers.

Mrs. Lawson chose an aqua chiffon sheath with white bodice trimmed with aqua silk brand and pearls for her daughter's wedding.

The groom's mother wore a pink silk chiffon sheath with accents of chantilly lace. The reception was held at Forest Lake Country Club.

A POWDER BLUE knit sheath with royal blue trim was selected by the bride for her wedding trip to Mackinac Island and a tour of Minnesota.

Following their return, the newlyweds will live in East Lansing.

Betrothed

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. O'Hara of Fairlee Drive, Bloomfield Hills, announce the engagement of their daughter, Susan Barr, to James Lange Nahrwold, son of Mrs. Elmer W. Nahrwold of Fort Wayne, Ind. and the late Dr. Nahrwold. The announcement was made at a dinner party Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James K. VanHook of Sunnyside, Birmingham. Miss O'Hara is a June graduate of Indiana University and a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority. Her fiancé is a law student at the same university.

New Daughter

A daughter, Michele Lynn, was born July 27 to Mr. and Mrs. Milton A. Manley Jr. of Nichollet Place. The mother is the former Maxine Neely. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Milton A. Manley Sr., 1091 Brookwood, Birmingham.
