MRS. SIMANOCK

Local Rites Join Couple In Marriage

The First Presbyterian Church, Birmingham, was the scene of the marriage Saturday of Suzanne Gail Purvis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott Purvis, Jr. of Henrietta Street, Birmingham, to Gary Raymond Simanock, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Simanock of Birwood, Birmingham.

Dr. W. Glen Harris performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride chose a Bianchi gown of imported bridal silk, trimmed with Point d'Angle tulle lace. A full chapel sweep train descended from a lapped sash. Her French illusion finger tip veil was attached to a petaloid crown of pearl-encrusted, matching lace. She carried a colonial bouquet of gardenias.

THE MATRON of honor, Mrs. Earl J. Roberts Jr. of E. Loroy, wore a black pink taffeta street-length gown with seersucker and bell skirt. Her matching headpiece was of silk trimmed with pearls, attached to a circular veil.

Matching gowns were worn by the bridesmaids, Barbara Ann Rowch of Chicago, Ill. and Edna Verla Vance of Albia, Ill. and by the junior bridesmaid, Kay Ann Simanock, sister of the groom.

The groom's brother, Robert D. Simanock, served as best man. Guests were seated by Earl J. Roberts Jr. of E. Loroy; Walter Scott Purvis III of Birmingham, brother of the bride; and James S. Pass, also of Birmingham.

AN AVOIDED gown silk chiffon dress trimmed with matching color embroidered lace was chosen by the bride's mother. The groom's mother wore a beige sheath with lace jacket.

Following a reception in the church social room, the couple left for a tour of northern Michigan and Wisconsin. For her wedding trip, the new Mrs. Simanock chose a black sheath with a black and white plaid, sleeveless coat, lined with green.

Following their return in early September, the couple will make their home on North Adams, Birmingham.

NORTH ADAMS

Chuck Bailey, 17, son of the Karl Baileys of North Adams, returned home Tuesday after two months in Holland. Chuck was among 200 Michigan youths in the program "Youth for Understanding" which is sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches. Chuck left June 19 for Amsterdam.

Upon their arrival, most left for various parts of Germany, while others went to Switzerland, Spain, England and Holland.

Chuck stayed with the W. H. Millean family, who lived just out-side Rotterdam. He and 17-year-old Aart Millean toured the countryside on bicycles. On one of their bike trips they traveled 250 miles through Holland.

Aart Millean has just arrived in this country and will spend his senior school year with a family in Caro, Mich.

ANOTHER BAILEY arriving home this week after a fishing trip out west was Karl Bailey. He and a trout fisherman friend, C. G. Callard of Lansing, motored to Glacier National Park for a week of trout fishing and camping.

THE DONALD Richardsons of Pine Hill drive, daughter, Donna, and friend, Patty French of Dover road, have returned home after four days at the Otsego Ski Club and Hidden Valley.

The previous weekend was spent at Portage Lake with Birmingham relatives, the Howard Landers. Another weekend in August, the Richardsons were guests of relatives, the J. P. Richardsons of Birmingham.

Son, Pat Richardson, joined 22 Seaboard High juniors and seniors for three weeks of rugged camp life of miles beyond the Sea. The group, sponsored by the Y.M.C.A., journeyed to an island near Osceola for four days of inactivity, before heading to a point near their destination. From there, they traveled by foot, carried packs of dehydrated foods and water canoes.

THE JOHN Van Alstyne, III of Pine Hill drive, joined the James Douglasses of Beverly Hills on their sloop for a week of water traveling.

They sailed on Lake St. Clair and Huron, with stops at St. Clair Inn, Port Sanilac and Wallaceburg, Ont. Eight-foot waves and bad weather kept them from reaching their planned Georgian Bay destination.

They are looking forward to a long weekend of sailing again with the Douglasses over the Labor Day holiday.

TORCH LAKE was the vacation playground of the Ransom Leeches and children, Bruce, Martha and Debra, of Juniper Court, for the past two weeks.

They vacationed at the summer home of Grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Leech. Visiting there during their stay were the Douglas McFetters of Birmingham and the Fred Harries of Detroit.

THE JACK Yoders and daughters, Kale and Jennifer of Pine Hill drive, spent the past two weeks visiting in the east. A few days were spent with the Robert Gallaghers, Mrs. Yoders relatives in Darien, Conn., before traveling on to Cape Cod and a visit with grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Fox.

CHARLEVOIX was the vacation destination of the Douglas Browns of Meadowlane drive a week ago. They attended the art festival and went boating and swimming.

Looking after the home front while their parents were away were Penny, John and Susan.

ANOTHER family home after a leisurely life of summertime living at Cassville, Mich., were the Robert Crosses of Spur Hill drive.

MRS. JOSEPH FOUSER of North Adams road entertained at a luncheon on Friday by introducing her new neighbor, Mrs. Ralph Kunkel of Greenrose road. Attending the luncheon were immediate neighbors, Mrs. Joseph Dvorski, Mrs. E. A. Linder, Mrs. Don Olson, Mrs. Laurence Wines.

Michele Anne Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Richard Sullivan of Fairfield, Conn., and Lt. Robert Stevenson III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stevenson of Lathrup, were joined in marriage Aug. 4 in the Church of the Assumption, at Fairfield, Conn. The couple will make their home in Mannheim, Germany, where the bridegroom is stationed with the Army.

ern Canada — and the National TTT Society in which Mrs. Kunkel is active.

The Clifford Noites of Meadowlane Drive have their daughters visiting them. Arriving recently for a two-week stay was daughter Mrs. Francis Crook and children, Carrey, Martha and Danny, of Milwaukee, Wis.

Daughter Lynn Nolte and her friend, Miss Kristin Momer of Berkeley, Calif., will be returning home this week after a three-week stay.

Ulka, N. Y. was the vacation destination of the Thresh Lowerys and children, Keith, Steven and David of Paton Drive, two weeks ago. They were houseguests of Mrs. Lowery's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Castellani. They also planned a stop to view Niagara Falls on their return.

The Robert Livesays and daughter, Jean, of Pine Hill Drive were among those traveling home on their vacation. They chose the family cottage at Leland for a relaxing week of sunning and swimming. After the week they traveled on to Good Heart, where they were guests of the Forbes Hendersons of Grosse Pointe for a few days.

Moving into the Leland family cottage for a week vacation were Mrs. Livesay's sister and family, the Clark Parkesses and children, Clark III, Betsy and Wendy.

Houseguests visiting the James Adams family of Kerway Drive for a week were former Evanston, Ill. neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. J.
