Costume Party, Luau To Fete Bride-Elect

By HELEN PETERS
MI 4-8320

Mr. and Mrs. L. Raymond Twyman and Mr. and Mrs. Preston Weir are collaborating on a luau and costume party to be given Dec. 11 at the Twyman home in Bloomfield Hills. The party is in honor of Ann Shenefeld and Peter Treas, whose marriage takes place Jan. 5.

Among those attending will be Mr. and Mrs. John Shenefeld, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Trees, Dr. and Mrs. Roy Hawkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard K. Scales, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Stubbs, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Proctor and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wilson.

Others will include Mr. and Mrs. Norman Knauss, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gibbons, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Appleford, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Runetta, Mrs. Richard Loupe, John St. Clair, Barbara Marco and Janice Malone.

MRS. EDWARD T. Burroughs and her daughter, Beth, of Hamilton Road, assisted by Linda Patton and Mini Pildith, gave a tea and miscellaneous shower recently in honor of Janet Cadwell, whose marriage to Charles Lippert takes place Saturday.

Among those present were the bride's mother, Mrs. Robert Cadwell; Mrs. J. William Torrence and her daughter, Mrs. John King of Pittsburgh; Mrs. William Pildith, Mrs. James Patton, Mrs. E. M. Hovey, Pat Hovey, Suzie Sawyer, Sue Leahy, Nancy Todd, Mary Ann Norris, Joanne Davies and Sherry Etter.

Many out of town guests have arrived for the wedding Saturday, including the bride's two sets of grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Cadwell of Fort Lauderdale and Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Copenhaver of Cape Coral, Fla. Also, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Duncan of Omaha, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. William Yule of Pittsburgh, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Evans of Cortland, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Mershon of Marshall, Mich.; Margaret Cook of Indianapolis, and former Birminghamites the Richard Thorburns of Hudson, O.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Lippert of Hilldale are hosting the rehearsal dinner Friday night at the Kingsley Inn.

THE HAROLD W. H. Burrows of North Adams Road took off on Nov. 16 on a combined business and pleasure trip. They flew to Los Angeles first and had dinner that evening with the James Riddells, formerly of Birmingham.

The following day they flew to Tahiti where they spent Thanksgiving. Australia was their next destination, with a stop over in Honolulu before returning home.

Mrs. Joseph L. Newman is entertaining at a bridge luncheon on Dec. 11 in her home on Lovell Ct. Among the guests will be Mesdames Chester Cabn, Walter Sheeta, Judge Boarden, Thomas Archer, Larry Norton, Martin Birmingham-Bloomfield takes justifiable pride in the news that five local women are playing major roles in bringing the Metropolitan Opera Co. to Detroit in May. Mrs. Yniema and Mrs. Gordon are general co-chairmen, with Mrs. Trumbull, Mrs. Graham and Mrs. French their special assistants.

3 Flags Chapter Of DAR Plans Christmas Meeting

"Around the Yule Log" is the theme for the Christmas meeting of the Three Flags chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution which will meet Monday at the home of Mrs. Earl M. Kelly of Farmington.

Serving as co-hostesses for the noon luncheon will be Mrs. K. M. Farnham, Lathrup, and Mrs. John A. Stromer, Royal Oak.

The program will center around a Christmas exchange. Each member will bring an experience from a Christmas past which is particularly memorable to her, a Christmas thought or a poem appropriate to the season.

An exchange of fancy cookies and candies will conclude the afternoon.

Rummel, Joseph Staphinskas, Austin Conrad, Norman Gallagher, Gil Winn, Arthur Oifs and James McPhail.

Since Nov. 14, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Bird of Lyonhurst Road and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Stubbs of Gleggarry Road have been proud grandparents, as that is the birthday of their first grandchild, Scott William, born to the Stephen O. Stubbs of Wrenwood Drive. Mrs. Stubbs is the former Mary Louise Bird.
