

With Rings on Their Fingers

At a family dinner given recently, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Cornell of Troy announced the engagement of their daughter Patricia to Paul Boyd, son of Charles Boyd of Fredericktown, O. Patricia, a graduate of Birmingham High School, is a physical education instructor in Oak Park High School. Her fiancé received his B.S. degree from Bowling Green University and his master's from the University of Michigan. He is teacher-coach at Oak Park.

Patricia Ann Korleski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Korleski of Grosse Pointe Woods is engaged to Arthur Martin Cagne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Cagne of Sandy Lane, Birmingham. The bride-elect, who attended Marygrove, is currently at the University of Detroit. Her fiancé, a summa cum laude graduate of U. of D., is presently attending Ohio State Graduate School. The couple has set Aug. 24 as the date of their marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond T. Pilkington of Westerville, O., announce the engagement of their daughter Judith Carol to James Richard Walter, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Walter of Birmingham. The bride-elect is attending Baldwin-Wallace college and her fiancé is currently in the University of Michigan Graduate School. The couple will be married Jan. 25.

FRANKLIN VILLAGE

Association Plans Yule Dinner Party

NI TA HARD
MA 6-3224

The annual Christmas party of the Wood Creek Farms Civic Association will be held Dec. 15 at Oakland Hills Country Club.

Villagers and their guests will launch the holiday season with this dinner-dance affair, scheduled to start at 7:30 p.m. according to chairman Edward Carden. Thirty-nine tables of bridge netted about $150 for the Franklin School PTA last Friday. With play started at 1 p.m. and 8 p.m., a total of 18 hostesses kept in touch with chairman Mrs. Thomas Rex to report winning games.

Mesdames Rex, John Donaldson, Philip Frier, John Robertson, Edward Loggnow, Robert Owens, Robert McManus and J. Schargas were among the hostesses. Others were Mrs. E. Folger, J. Brandstrom, Fred McNabb, Arnold A. Tomke, Kenneth Bailey, Charles Foote, J. Bickert, Eugene Kaecik, James Auchterlonie and Ralph Spreser.

Mrs. Everett Billiu was high game winner with 5360. Mrs. John Donaldson came next with 6270 and Mrs. John Maival took the low with 170. Mrs. Richard Ford was grand slam winner at 2:55 p.m., while Mrs. M. Poppenhugh won 150 honors at 8:50 p.m.

FRANKLIN VILLAGE Players, off to a rollicking start on their little season, will hold a dinner meeting Friday night at McInerney's on Northwestern. The entertainment committee under Dr. Harlow Bates has contrived to keep the program a secret so this high-spirited group will have much to look forward to after an eight o'clock dinner. Arden golfers and neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Howard and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rex of McKinney Drive obeyed an impulse and flew down to Pinehurst, N. C., for several days on the links. Leaving Franklin Friday morning, they were ready to tee off by 2 that afternoon.

MR. AND MRS. ARCHIBALD Doty of 13 Mile also had a hasty holiday this weekend. They spent a few carefree days in Philadelphia.

The J. Robert Mitchells of Franklin Park Drive proudly announced the birth of their fourth son and fifth child Sunday morning. The new baby astutely refrained from detracting from his older brother Bill's birthday the day before.

THE FRANKLIN Community Association winter sports goods sale, which includes everything from skates to sleds and rubber boots, will be held this Saturday at the Franklin Community Church.

Co-chairmen George Howard and Forest Palmer want villagers who have outgrown or unused skis, skates, winter sports clothing of any size, including adult sizes, to bring them in for resale. It's a good way to whittle down the Christmas list and make your
