

SUBURBAN SCENE

Add a Spot of Cheer

Champagne and sherry will be served "walkers" at the French contemporary home of the Fruehaufs, 6330 Middle-bait Road. An old-fashioned tree, 25 feet tall, will dominate the living room, its branches covered with hand-made ornaments. Mrs. Harry J. Nederlander will be the hostess.

Guests will be charmed by the traditional Christmas decor in the Cummins' home, 753 Sebago Lane—where flickering fires from the open hearth will add touches of magic to the exquisite tree decorations in the main room. Mrs. Robert T. Gill will be hostess.

And finally, the Wilson trophy room in their home at

1251 Orchard Ridge, will be an exciting surprise with its handsome display of African animal heads decorated for the season. This light, airy room should set a gay mood for all who see it. Mrs. Thomas T. Restruck will be the hostess.

'They Also Serve . . .'

Assisting the hostesses in each home will be dozens of Junior Symphony members (their local roster becomes larger following each mid-summer luncheon), among whom are Mrs. Harry D. Anderson, Mrs. Robert E. Reason, Mrs. Herald Lack, Mrs. John W. Bauer, Mrs. John A. McCall, Mrs. Robert D. Gargaro, Mrs. Howard A. Ternes, Jr., Mrs. Gene Eyer and Mrs. Thomas L. Pickrell.

Others are Mrs. George A. Duke, Jr., Mrs. Robert C. Doran, Mrs. Ted Lindsay, Mrs. Leonard Latos, Mrs. Seymour Eaton, Mrs. John F. Mathews, Mrs. Ralph F. Lee, Jr., Mrs. David B. Demarest, Mrs. Charles R. Walker, Mrs. Herbert Graebner, Mrs. Richard I. Keyes, Mrs. Thomas G. Kelly and Mrs. Bruce E. Lardner.

Christmas Visit to Follow Family's Trip to Ohio

By VELMA McCANE
MA 6-6530

Receptions, luncheons and dinner parties filled a busy weekend for the John Hoffins of Hedge-wood Drive in Kirkwood on their recent trip to Cincinnati. They motored down to visit their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Alan G. Smith. Among the many social functions they attended was a reception at the City Club, given by Mr. and Mrs. H. Hilman Smith to introduce their son and his new bride, Lt. and Mrs. Richard H. Smith.

The Hoffins expect their daughter and infant son to arrive Dec. 15 for the holidays. Her husband will follow on Dec. 21 and little David Alan will be christened on Dec. 23 at the First Presbyterian Church, Birmingham.

MR. AND MRS. Alexander Redger and their family of Quarten Road flew to Philadelphia recently to visit her family. They spent the long Thanksgiving weekend there, returning Monday.

KIRKWOOD

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. John Cooke of Woodwind Drive were his mother, Mrs. John Cooke of New Jersey, and his uncle, Leo Franz of New York. Both arrived to spend Thanksgiving with the Cookes who took them to Greenfield Village before they returned home.

WALNUT LAKE

Mrs. Fred Orritt of Horseshoe Drive entertained members of her sewing club last Thursday. Although the eight members of the club meet regularly for sewing they always start at noon with a long and lingering luncheon—so for very sound reasons they call themselves the "Hungry Eight."

BALMORAL

Visiting friends in Milwaukee over the long Thanksgiving week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Prymski and their daughter, Debbie, of Priory Lane. Last week the Prymskis entertained guests from Pontiac, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson, who arrived Monday to stay a few days.

BRAES

Noble Grands

The Past Noble Grands Club of Pride of Oakland Rebekah Lodge No. 445 will hold its annual Christmas party at Ted's Restaurant on N. Woodward Dec. 11 at 6 p.m. Dinner reservations may be made with Mrs. Margaret Colburn of Purdy Ave., Birmingham.
