

CAROL KLENKE

BLOOMFIELD NORTH

Former Residents Announce Troth Of their Daughter

GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-8257

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Klenke Jr. of Sherman Oaks, Cal., former residents of 875 North Haradale, Bloomfield Hills, announce the engagement of their daughter Carol to William F. Burrow Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Burrow of Dallas, Tex. The bride-elect is a graduate of Kingswood School, Cranbrook, and attended Northwestern University for two years. She is now attending Manhattanville College of the Sacred Heart in Purchase, N.Y. Carol was affiliated with Alpha Phi and Tau Beta Association. She is the granddaughter of the late Mrs. Winifred F. Stoddard, formerly of Los Angeles, and James B. Stoddard of Dallas and the late Mr. and Mrs. William H. Klenke of New York City and Greenwich, Conn.

BILL is a graduate of St. Mark's School, Dallas, and a 1961 graduate of Princeton University and the Princeton ROTC program. He was commissioned a second lieutenant in the reserve artillery. He is now in his second year at Yale Law School, New Haven, Conn. He is affiliated with Tiger Inn.

The wedding will take place in Los Angeles on Aug. 17, 1963.

KNOB HILL. A surprise baby shower was foiled by the steak last week. Mrs. Jere Gillette, Mrs. John Flowers and Mrs. Steve Kallas planned the shower in honor of Mrs. Thomas B. Lonan on Nov. 28 but Mrs. Lonan presented her family with a six-pound, two-ounce baby boy on Nov. 29. The ladies got together anyway for an evening of bridge.

Attending were Mrs. Donald Martin, Mrs. William Wood, Mrs. Gene Mahany, Mrs. Harry Erdman, Mrs. Robert Oakes and Mrs. Neil McGill.

Other neighbors were Mrs. Elwood Engel, Mrs. John Dressler, Mrs. Lloyd Heusser, Mrs. Stanley Miller and Mrs. Charles Rush. "Maestro" Lonan was welcomed home by Cathleen, Lois, Mary Ellen, Joan and Thomas. Sister Lois was especially excited because he chose to arrive on her 11th birthday.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brown of Ardmore Drive entertained a group of friends and business acquaintances at cocktails and dinner on Sunday after the Lion's game.

GILBERT LAKE. Former Glenview resident Mrs. Leonard DeCoster, who now lives in Westport, Conn., was entertained at a luncheon Friday by Mrs. William Borridge Jr. of Blanford Road. Mrs. DeCoster, her husband and children, Pam and Charles, were visiting with the George Shaffer family in Birmingham Farms over the holiday.

BLOOMFIELD NORTH. Parents of Conant School pupils should put a ring around Dec. 10 on the calendar. Conant will hold its annual Christmas program this year entitled, "Songs of the Season."

Due to the large attendance last year, the program will be held at the Bloomfield Hills Junior High School this year. It will begin at 7:30 in the gymnasium. The program is under the direction of Mrs. Judith Donakowski. Mrs. Phoebe De Graf will be the accompanist. Grades one through six will be participating. Ruth Pew and Marjorie Van Halteren will accompany the fifth grade with bells when they sing "Silver Bells."

BLOOMFIELD HEIGHTS. The November meeting of the Bloomfield Heights branch W.N.F.G.A. was held at the home of Mrs. G. Schweyer, 4500 Risler Court. Mrs. Goldner of the Golden Nursery on Telegraph Road showed samples of the Christmas decorations from her shop and also demonstrated how to wrap Christmas gifts. Co-hostesses were Mrs. William Stelzer and Mrs. Angus O'Brien. Mrs. George Engelhard, president, and Mrs. James Hamilton, co-program chairman, attended the fall council meeting at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, Nov. 15.

CRANBROOK. Mrs. Earl MacPherson opened her Merrimac Court home on Monday for the annual tea and gift exchange of the Cranbrook branch W.N.F.G.A.

WING LAKE. Mrs. G. H. Pitts of Wingercroft Court opened her home last Thursday morning for a coffee. Attending were 14 ladies who are the committee heads of Kirk-In-The-Hills, planning "Kirk Day" which will begin on Jan. 22 and continue every Tuesday. At that time the ladies of the church will gather to work on service projects.

WILLIAMSBURG. Members of the Williamsburg branch W.N.F.G.A. met for luncheon on Monday at the home of Mrs. John J. Geiss, 4755 Brafferton Road. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Everett Mills and Mrs. James W. Moll. Each member brought a gift pertaining to gardening for the Christmas gift exchange.

FOXROFT. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn White and their three children of Crabtree Road spent a long week end recently as houseguests of Mrs. White's family in Grand Rapids.

New Brother

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Cooley (Elizabeth Saylor of Birmingham) of Southgate, Mich., announce the birth of a son, David Russell, Nov. 12. David joins two other brothers, Craig, 4, and Mark, 2.

Florida Trip Follows Rites In Church

MRS. J. H. GALLAGHER, JR.

At a ceremony solemnized Dec. 1 in St. Michael's Church, Southfield, Elaine Rita Sorensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Sorensen of Lathrup Village became the bride of James Hugh Gallagher, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Gallagher of Lake Como, Fla.

The bride wore a gown of white peau de soie fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, chapel train and skirt and midriff accented by lace applique. Her veil was held in place by a jeweled crown, and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. August Barbrick of Park Forest, Ill., was matron of honor and bridesmaids included Mary Gallagher of Plainfield, Mich.; Roberta Geist of Detroit; Mrs. John Richardson of Farmington and Abby Roche of Dearborn. They were all crowned in gold and ivory brocade and carried crescent bouquets of blending nuns.

Mr. Barbrick was the best man and sent the guests were William Gearing of Evanston, Ill.; Louis Oberli of Detroit; Ralph
