Mrs. Hathaway Will Celebrate Ninetieth Birthday

Mrs. William Hathaway will be 90 years old on Dec. 19, in celebration of which her grandson and his wife, the Foster Barrymonds of 539 Townsend, Birmingham, will give an open house on Sunday. Mrs. Hathaway, who came to Birmingham as a bride in 1892, makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond.

The honoree has three children: Earl of Traverse City; William of Southfield and Mrs. Edward Fuchs of Pontiac. Two grandsons and six great-grandchildren complete her family. Friends are invited to stop by on Sunday.

Youngsters Add Their Own Touch

Orthopedically handicapped children who attend the Tyler Orthopedic Unit (housed in Tyler School, Royal Oak, but available to youngsters throughout Oakland County) put their small hearts and souls into a project recently, results of which were seen last Friday at the annual benefit card party given by the Parents' Group in Norup Junior High School, Royal Oak.

Additional feature of this pre-holiday event was a gift shop, and the youngsters had made the cloth for the huge gift display table therein.

Young fry from Birmingham having a hand in this creative venture were Stephen Beer, son of the Howard Beers of Burnley Drive; John La Clave, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. LaClave of Holland Road; Ann Rule, daughter of Mrs. Frances Rule of Halla Lane, and Kewon Degen, son of the Donald W. Degens of Maple Road.

party will go towards meeting the budget for a summer recreation-therapy program.

The necessity for such a program is two-fold and stems from the fact that 1) (handicapped children need continuing therapy if they are not to regress during the summer and 2) they need the opportunity to play with children of similar abilities.

The orthopedic program at Tyler is part of Oakland County's special education program in which all the school districts cooperate.

Transportation is provided by whatever school district the child happens to be in, and the program is geared to those for whom regular classroom attendance is impractical or impossible.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, weddings and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.

On Tuesday, Dec. 18, St. Dunstan's Guild of Cranbrook will hold its annual Christmas Party at 8 p.m. Members will join in the traditional Christmas Carol Sing at Christ Church Cranbrook with Bob Bates at the organ and Henry S. Booth reading "The Christmas Story".

Then off through the snow and up to the Pavilion for the egg nog party.

Board members put on this party, decorate the playhouse, cut down a giant tree and trim it. They also make the egg nog which takes time and tasting.

As a penance for this one small pleasure they are required to Lily-up the Pavilion the next day.
