Gardeners Plan Decorations Contest

By Velma McCane MA 6-6530

The Westchester branch, WNFCA is repeating last year's successful Christmas decorations contest in the Westchester area.

An outdoor contest for all home owners in Greater Westchester, will be judged on the "full picture" basis which will include decoration of the entire front of the house rather than just "door decorations" as in past years.

Flayers will soon be on their way denoting the different categories which will be acceptable for judging.

Mrs. Marvin Goodell will be general chairman. Her assistants are Mrs. Byron Terice, Mrs. Roger Cutler, Mrs. Vernon Pritch, Mrs. Jack Seelye and club president Mrs. Boris Osynak.

A DESSERT BRIDGE will be held today at the home of Mrs. Tommy Shannon, 2766 Heathfield, starting at 12:30 p.m.

It is sponsored by the Westchester Women's Club and all greater Westchester area women may attend.

Hues of blues and lavenders in dining room of Mrs. M. E. Ricketts on Pebble Lane greeted guests when they settled down to an inviting "brunch" last Thursday.

The pre-Christmas party was enjoyed by Mesdames, Lillard Schmidt, J. B. Woolfenden, Eugene Weingarden, Richard Mason, William Comey, Larry Salter and Vaughn Walker. Others included

Mesdames, Earl Lapp, Denton Hassell, Kay Pieter, Stan Mattson, Ted Peck, Hal Reek, F. L. McNabb and Larry Nagel.

MR. PATRICK DONALD COLLAM arrived on Nov. 21, weighing a hefty 7 lbs., 12 oz's, to join Mike, 4, Susie, 3, and Kathy, 18 months, in the Donald Collam home on Pebble Lane.

MAPLE-CRANBROOK

Some well-planned surprises are in store for the members of the Maplebrook branch, WNFCA when they meet for their Christmas program and pot-luck luncheon on Monday at 12:30 p.m. Mrs. Kenneth Busha is opening her home for the affair at 11 S. Williamsbury Road.

Co-hostesses are Mrs. Robert Pearson and Mrs. W. E. Boerman.

The Yule spirit will be exemplified by a donation to a Korean orphan fund. The group will decorate a Christmas tree with gaudy canes in front of the new Westchester School and will distribute the canes to the kindergarten on the last day of school before Christmas vacation. This project is headed by past president Mrs. Kenneth Busha.

WILLIAM CLARK of S. Cranbrook arrived home recently sporting a healthy tan after spending two weeks in Pensacola, Fla., where he attended a seminar with the Navy public relations department.

Motoring to Belleville, Ontario, the Everetts, Harrisons of S. Cranbrook Road enjoyed five wonderful days visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Harrison.

MEADOWLAKE

The lovely Meadowlake area with its enticing lake is being with new residents.

Two weeks ago Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooverman moved into the house at 6547 Donegan Ct., coming here from General Motors, the Fisher Body division.

Gale, 15, and Gary, 12, both attend Groves High School.

Just a few doors away, at 6523 Donegan, are Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Howard and youngsters Sally, 11, and Randy, 8.

Dr. Howard is a veterinarian and is associated with the Patterson Cat and Dog Hospital. Detroit.

Every one in this family is busy and enjoys golf, swimming, sports of all kinds and especially gardening.

DR. AND MRS. Matiland Stewart are now living at 7235 Meadowlake with children John G., 11 and Joseph G., 19 months. The Stewarts are very busy people. He is in the professional building and she is opening a new office at 4094 Fairlane Drive to take care of her bread and advertising business.

The J. Richard Hallocks of Hayard Road entertained with cocktails and a dinner party in an atmosphere of fall decorations.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Richard Daly, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Cornell, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pfeiffer, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Judge and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Swallow.

FRANKLIN WOODS

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Bequette and sons Mike and Jim journeyed to Waterloo, Ill., where they visited her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. P. McConnell, for several days.

from Wyandotte. Judd is Michigan district manager of Fidelity Appraisal.

Larry, 16, David, 15, and Mary, 12, keep the household jumping. The entire family love golf, swimming and bridge.

WALNUT LAKE

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eder of Putnam Road took a fast jaunt to South Bend, Ind. where they spent several pleasant days with her sister, Mrs. Clifford Zabrosky, and her family.

WEST BLOOMFIELD

The Women's League of the Shepherd King Lutheran Church met Tuesday and spent the day making wreaths for their church. Mrs. George Raymond was in charge.

Two New Families Move Into Growing Subdivision

By VELMA McCANE MA 6-6530

Two new families have been added to the rapidly growing Kingswood subdivision.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Henkel and their three youngsters are now living at 4725 Quanton Road. The children are Ricky, Margaret and Karen.

Henkel is associated with Bohn Aluminum and Brass Co. and Mrs. Frankel is an avid bridge player.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Duncan moved into 5528 Sutton Lane two months ago. They have one daughter, Sandra, who is 9 and attends Midvale School.

The Duncans came here from Grosse Pointe. He is with the S. S. Kresge Co.

SOME 30 GUESTS were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Toner on Kingsmill Road recently. Friends of long standing enjoyed cocktails, dinner and pleasant conversation.

BRAES

Mr. and Mrs. George Shanahan of Eastmore Drive recently went moose hunting at Granger Lake, Ont. Although they didn't get the hoped for moose, George wasn't in the least discouraged and was off again a short time later for some deer hunting at Millsburg. Others hunting deer were Bob Eisen and W. L. McCane.

A very big welcome is extended to the M. L. Judd family who moved into 6204 Darramore Road just a week ago coming here
