Ed Hahn Wins City Squash Title at BAC

Ed Hahn, a former national champion, won the second annual Detroit City Championship squash tournament staged last week at the Birmingham Athletic Club.

Hahn, 49, a 14-time winner of state squash titles, defeated ninth-ranked Tony Crociata, 15-8, 12-15, 15-9, 15-9, in the finals of the tourney Sunday.

CHIEF HOPE of the BAC, Rick Austin, last year's champion, defaulted in the quarterfinals to Leonard Weiner. Austin was weakened by a bout with the flu prior to the tournament.

Another BAC contender, Tod Guething, was defeated by Hahn, 15-11, 15-12, 15-13, in the quarterfinals.

Hahn relied on a hard service, control and corner shots to turn back Crociata and win his first city meet. There were more than 20 players competing in the single-elimination tournament.
