“The Town of Friendly Shops”

Christmas is a family affair . . . so why not make your Christmas shopping this year a care-free, fun-filled experience. Bring all the family to Birmingham, where Christmas spirit reigns supreme, and see how much enjoyment can be packed into a shopping excursion.

It only takes minutes to reach any of Birmingham's gift laden shops. No long, family-tiring rides that are hard on everyone. Instead, your valuable family time can be spent in selection of gifts from thousands of "just-right" items available at Birmingham's Holiday Shops. Because Birmingham shopping areas are so close to your home, and are completely stocked for Christmas buying, it only makes good sense to come to the town of friendly shops.

It's important that Birmingham area families have an opportunity to shop together, so many of Birmingham's shops will remain open every night until Christmas. Since most shops will be open 'til 9, Dad can join the shopping party in the evening without feeling hurried or rushed. Being open in the evening is only one of many services you can count on when you patronize your home town merchant.
