THE BIRMINGHAM (MICH.) ECCENTRIC Dec. 13, 1962

Dear Santa Claus:

I like you. I want a Dick Tracy wrist radio for Christmas. I want an army combat sub. If you get hungry and have that empty feeling, look around our living room. You'll find some cookies and some milk. Please bring Katie something that she would like. Yours truly, MICHIGAN'S RAPIDLY expanding freeway system (double lines) is shown lacing the state together in this special map from Automobile Club of Michigan. The new 160 mile-long Detroit-Muskegon Freeway, 1-96, contains the 1,000th mile of freeway in the state. Together with 1-94, the Chicago Road, it connects eastern and western shores of Michigan. The still-abuilding 1-75 runs up the center of the state, temporarily utilizing portions of US-23, US-10 and US-27. Also shown are the completed portions of other state freeways, together with some of the older trunk highways (single lines).
