

Christmas-Time For Mister Davis

Once again, Christmas has sneaked up and caught most of the year's crop of Christmas shoppers unawares. If you're one who got caught, be not of faint heart, for help is at my shop and manufactory at 332 Hamilton Street, behind Demery's. There you'll find the marvelous items shown above, plus hundreds just as nice and nicer. Lamps, built by me from wonderful old lanterns and the like. Old Boston Rockers, ready for relaxing or rocking babies. Dishes, Clocks, Early Americana of every kind. Whatever your needs, whatever your gift problems may be, I have an item that should be perfect for one of the names on your list.

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Snow Suit Set Is Invited To a Party

The snow-suit set will have dibs on the ice rink at neighboring Kimball High School, Royal Oak, from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m., Friday, Dec. 28, for a first skating party sponsored by the sub-teen committee of Oakland YWCA, Clawson.

Open to all children in the four to six-year age group, the party will wind up at the branch with free hot chocolate and sandwiches served by committee members.

German-born Mrs. Erna M. Bernadic of Ferndale, branch ballet teacher and a figure skater in her native Mainz on the Rhine River, will lead youngsters in a grand march around the rink before dividing them according to skating skill.

Beginners will be teamed with more experienced partners for several turns on the ice, later joining a train formation and a tunnel game. Mrs. Bernadic also will teach figure skating and other ice routines.

"OUR COMMITTEE FELT the younger children are the neglected ones in Christmas festivities, with older girls coming to many school and private parties," said Mrs. Laurence H. Pate of Royal Oak.

"This kind of supervised outing," continued Mrs. Pate, "gives the smaller children the opportunity to skate with those in their own age group. They will have the whole rink to themselves."

The committee seeks teenage and adult volunteers to assist children with skates, mittens and other needs. Because of food preparation, advance reservation for the party is necessary.

Parents of children planning to attend the party and volunteers wishing to donate their services should call the "YW".

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, weddings and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.
