Betrothal Revealed

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sandelman of Rutherford Road, Bloomfield Township, announce the betrothal of their daughter, Carole Lynn, to Robert Ralph Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jones of Ogdensburg, N. Y. The bride-elect attended the University of Michigan where she was affiliated with Chi Omega Sorority. Her fiancé is a graduate of St. Bonaventure University. The wedding will take place in May.

FRANKLIN VILLAGE
Christmas Flavor Sparks Junior Players' Offerings

NITA HARD
 MA 6-3224

Whether your visions of sugar plums come plain or fancy, the Franklin Village Junior Players have their own special variety which will be offered twice for friends and families on Saturday, independent of very much adult help, the youthful thespians have produced two one-act plays "The Magic Christmas Cookie Jar," directed by John Adams and "What, No Santa Claus?," directed by But Horton.

Performances will be held in the Franklin Community Church social hall at 2 and 4 p.m. Mary Gidley will read "The Littlest Angel" for both audiences.

About 15 young people have sandwiched in rehearsals—and time to work out costume and scenic decorations. The group work and Christmas preparations to provide this traditional connection for the enjoyment of the community's small fry. Tickets are available at the door.

EXPLORER POST 1011 held a pre-holiday party at the home of John Lyon Friday night. Bruce Thomason of Denison drive hosted a "bachelor blast" Saturday night which brought together boys who had been classmates in Franklin School but have become somewhat separated during their Junior High years.

The Franklin Community Association "Christmas Decorations" contest will be held Dec. 28.

Judge Al Carr and his "jury" will cruise up and down the village roads to determine the three winners and several honorable mentions. Participants are urged to have their outdoor trimmings fully lit during those hours.

THE FRANKLIN Community Association also announces that the annual president's ball will be held Jan. 25 at Plum Hollow Country Club. Residents planning southern trips and post-holiday vacations take note.

Dr. John Burger will share honors as the new president with Dr. Ralph Smith as past president. The dinner-dance is traditionally gala and climaxes the silver anniversary of the association this year.

First through third graders at Franklin School held their Christmas program Wednesday afternoon for parents and grandparents. The fourth through sixth grades have prepared "Christmas in Hawaii" under the direction of music teacher Ron Sprunger and art teacher Marilyn Ball. The program is scheduled for Thursday evening.

THE PRESTON Dozier family will be wide-awake at 4 a.m. Friday morning and at the airport to greet student son Dan, winging in from Boulder, Mont. A freshman at the University of Montana, Dan hasn't seen his family since September.

Flight 81 from New York tonight, brings Larry Hard home from Amherst, Mass., and Marilyn Owens from the University of Vermont. Both families plan to converge on Metropolitan airport at 2:03 p.m. to provide a rousing welcome.

The roving Eric Opitzes of Ramble road have been traveling again. Postcards indicate their latest jaunt took them to the Holy Land.

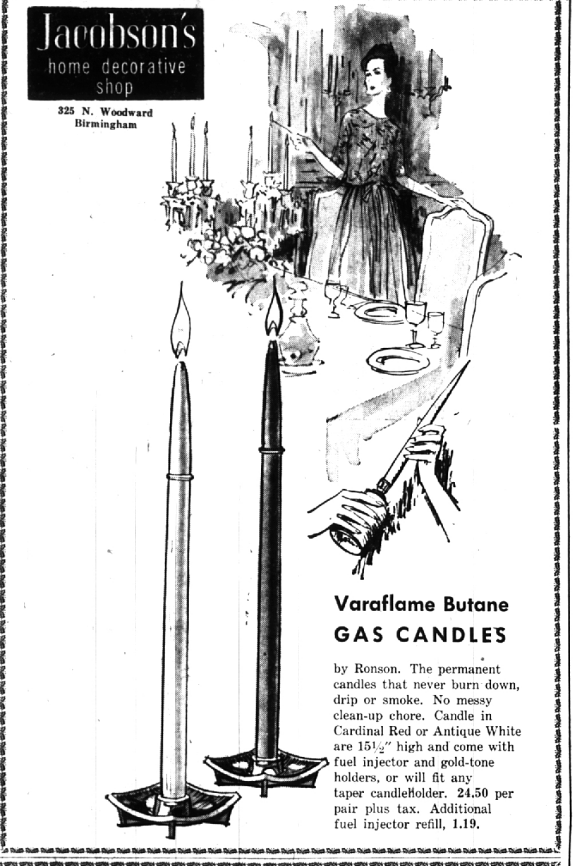

ON CHRISTMAS EVE, the Phil Prives of Colony Hill and the Wallace Zierers of Seenic,

Alumni Party Keys Festivity

Numerous hosts will entertain at cocktail parties at home preceding the annual Kingswood-Cranbrook alumni dance Friday at Plum Hollow.

The letters' guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Paul Geiger, Mr. and Mrs. David Breck, the Thomas G. Kellys, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gillow, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rowland and the Bruce Craigs. Proceeds from the party will benefit scholarship funds at both schools.
