Couple Welcomes Yule With Parties

GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

The Pine Village home of Mr. and Mrs. William Carriek on Ranch Lane has been and will be the scene of several holiday parties. Last Wednesday, Mrs. Carriek invited the eight members of her bridge group for luncheon. Those who enjoyed Christmas tea sandwiches and holiday cheer were Mrs. Herbert Brown, Mrs. Robert Burton, Mrs. James Cousins, Mrs. Harold Kalbfleisch, Mrs. Allan Keogh, Mrs. Vincent Hayes and Mrs. William Roney.

On Sunday, the Carrieks hosted a reunion dinner party for their "boat friends" and their guests who journeyed to Grand Bend, Ont., last August for a fun-filled four days.

ENJOYING reminiscing and seeing movies and pictures of the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Bud Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kalbfleisch, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Houck, the Bill Neefs, the George Souters, the Robert Burtons, the Jack Wilsons, the Dick Miners and the Robert Jessups.

Before the Christmas dinner dance of the Merry Makers Dance Club at Red Run Country Club on Saturday, the Carrieks will entertain 16 couples at a cocktail party.

WESTWOOD MANOR

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Byer of Kolly Road have had former Westwood Manor residents Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smith as their houseguests recently. The Smiths have moved to New Jersey and are awaiting the completion of their new house in Smoke Rise.

During their visit with the Byers, Mrs. Smith was honored by her former neighbors at a luncheon at Devon Gables and both Mr. and Mrs. Smith renewed friendships with their duplicate bridge group when it met at the home of the Robert Jessups.

Mr. and Mrs. Byer invited the Ted Duncans, the Gordon Bolings and the Robert Lorenzens for a potluck dinner party, also in honor of the Smiths.

WING LAKE

Lynda Weston, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Earl Weston of Forman Drive, was honored this week when she was chosen to join the University of Michigan Choral Lynda is a senior at Bloomfield Hills High School and will be among 70 students from Michigan going to Europe for seven weeks this summer. The group will tour the British Isles and the Scandinavian countries.

Michigan Chorale is a ten-age exchange program, sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches. This will be the sixth year that students have been sent abroad through the program. The students are chosen because of scholastic achievement, citizenship and musicianship.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE

Sixteen friends will come from Rochester, Northville, Fort Huron and Detroit on Saturday for the dinner party being given by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Crook of Hupp Cross Road.

LOVE PINE HILLS

A men's and ladies' joke gift exchange will spark the regular monthly bridge meeting on Friday at Dr. and Mrs. John Lichtwardt's home on Raymond Place. The Lichtwardts are expecting about 24 for the evening.

KNOB HILL

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Mahany of Van Ness Drive spent last weekend in Cincinnati visiting both

Mr. and Mrs. Mahany's parents. On Sunday afternoon, the Mahany's will host a few neighbors for some holiday cheer.

FOREST LAKE

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton J. Ferguson opened their home at 3454 Blossom Lane last Sunday afternoon for a holiday party. Some 35-40 neighbors attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Hicks of Bloomfield Court are proud new grandparents. Amy Howe, born Dec. 3 and weighing seven pounds, 13 ounces, is the new addition to the Patrick Kimball family of Winnetka, Ill. She joins David, 12, Steven, 10, and Darcy, 7. Mrs. Kimball is the former Susan Hicks. The Hicks are looking forward to a holiday visit with the Kimball family.

Mrs. John Noonan of Pebble-shire opened her home recently for the holiday party of the United Airlines "Clipped Wings" alumni.
