"You are invited to a Goodwill Party, 8700 Preston Place, Chevy Chase, Md., Sunday Dec. 16, 6 to 9 p.m.—by, for and because of Peggy and Karl Kellerman."

So read, in part, invitations sent by the Kellermans to their good friends in Birmingham where they lived until recently. Since they left most of their furniture here pending the sale of their house, they asked each guest to bring a gift which ordinarily would already have been given to Goodwill Industries or the equivalent.

They expected an interesting array which will, in turn, be turned over to the Chevy Chase Goodwill when their own furniture arrives from Michigan.

Among local couples invited were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Cahn, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cornish and Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Thompson.

SUNDAY, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Morse of Rutledge Road entertained at their annual Christmas brunch for 75 guests.

Their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Bissell and granddaughter Debby of Madison, Wis., are arriving Friday to spend the week-end. They all plan to celebrate Christmas Sunday, as the Bissells must leave for home that night.

The Morses are thrilled over the arrival of a new granddaughter, Laurie Lynn, born Nov. 20 to their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Knox Morse of Phoenix, Ariz.

On Christmas day the Shaws are entertaining at a family dinner. Among their guests will be Mrs. Shaw's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Howard McDonald, with son Graham and daughter Joan, who is home from Wellesley for the holidays; also Mrs. William Ferguson and Mr. Shaw's brother, John T. Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boyer entertained 30 friends at a brunch Sunday, which also celebrated Mr. Boyer's birthday.

They recently returned from a week-end in New York City where they met Mr. and Mrs. James F. Lovett, of Pittsburgh, former residents of Bloomfield Hills.

A GROUP of old friends who have gathered for a progressive party at each other's homes for many years, had their annual "get-together" Wednesday night. It was held a bit early this year, as one of the couples, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Frankfort of Oakland Drive, were leaving the next day for Florida to spend Christmas and New Year's.

Others in the group were the Larry Nortons of Westwood

Drive; Joseph Newmans of Lowell Court; Jesse Judds of Gleggery Road; Chet Cahns of Westwood Drive; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rex of Kirkcaldy Drive, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Burrows of Adams Road.

MRS. DONALD Hutton of Hawthorne Road recently returned home from Tryon, N. C. Mrs. Hutton was accompanied south by her mother, Mrs. Edward Plunkett, who will spend the winter there.

Tea to Be Given By Wellesley Club

Three Wellesley College freshmen from Birmingham took a look through the campus newspaper, the yearbook and some color slides of the college last week in preparation for participation in the annual Christmas tea of the Birmingham Wellesley Club.

Festivities will take place Dec. 27 in the home of Mrs. Robert Henry, 146 Puritan, honor guests to be high school students interested in going to Wellesley. Those from this area presently attending the eastern school will talk about various phases of campus life.

Nancy Turner, whose mother attended Wellesley, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Rodman Turner of Winthrop Lane. She is a member of the choir and Madrigal Group at school.

Granddaughter of a Wellesley alumna of the class of 1906, Mary Randall also is in the college choir. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. John F. Randall of N. Gleggery Road.

Margaret Lourie is the daughter of the Eugene J. Louries of Dorchester Road.

All three girls were classmates at Seaholm.
