DOLL DINNER

The Christmas season at Monticello College was climaxed Dec. 17, with the sixty-fourth annual Doll Dinner.

Since 1897 dolls have been collected by Monticello students for this traditional dinner at the college.

Dolls for this dinner are sent to the college from all over the country. From Monticello alumnae, friends, celebrities, faculty and of course, students.

Following the dinner, the Monticello Christian Association packs the dolls for delivery to hospitals and children's homes for distribution to children at Christmas.

Local girls attending this year's celebration included Quannah Winchell, daughter of the
