Garden Clubbers Enjoy 8th Annual Christmas Party

By LOUISE N. KRAMER
MI-6-9716

The Valley Woods Branch WNFGA enjoyed their eighth annual Christmas party on Monday. A festive holiday luncheon and exchange of gifts was held at the home of Mrs. Donald Young of Yarmouth. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Kenneth Kittle, Mrs. John Tessmar, Mrs. Ted Pazas, Mrs. Glen Westbury, Mrs. J. Kelter and Mrs. Charles Deuel.

The group has had a busy fall, meeting every Monday since September at the home of Mrs. Louis Dempsey of Hampton Road for a workshop. They have been making kissing balls, table prizes and favors for their fund raising project.

The luncheon and bridge party recently held at the North Congregational Church was well attended and very successful. Decorations were in the Christmas theme with baked goods, aprons and candy for guests to purchase. Table prizes were garden club calendars and tiny Christmas trees made of pine cones, decorated with jewelry and sprayed with gold glitter.

participated in games, exchanged gifts and enjoyed the buffet table, flanked by punch bowls on either end. Assisting Mrs. Sifferman were Mrs. Leon Carrier, Mrs. David Mutchery, and Mrs. J. B. McSwaney.

Mrs. John Villa of Plumwood, when invited to a Christmas coffee on Dec. 5, found on her arrival that she was the guest of honor at a surprise baby shower.

Mrs. Kenneth Kittle of Westland, assisted by Mrs. John Tessmar, planned the coffee in the holiday theme. Other friends present were Mrs. Charles Scull, Mrs. Kenneth Bond, Mrs. Walter Nyland, Mrs. James Taffie, Mrs. Dan Adams, Mrs. Chet Sayles, Mrs. Charles Deuel, Mrs. Harry Khoushny and Mrs. Joseph Balenowich.

THE BEVERLY SCHOOL PTA held its Christmas program on Monday. Grades one through three presented their programs in the afternoon and grades four through six entertained parents with an evening program.

THE HOWARD Lambie family of Reedmore recently spent a long weekend near Alpena, combining visiting and hunting. They visited their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Prucha, who moved to Grand Lake a year ago.

John Jorgensen of Marlin Court has recently become a member of the Delta Kappa Phi fraternity at the new Northwood Institute in Midland. He is also vice president of the business class and a member of the Future Business Men's Association. John graduated from the Roosevelt Military School in Illinois in 1960 and attended Alma College last year.

MRS. R. T. SIFFERMAN of Marguerite opened her home for the annual Christmas party of St. Thomas Guild members on Dec. 10. Amid traditional decorations of the season, the guests participated in games, exchanged gifts and enjoyed the buffet table, flanked by punch bowls on either end. Assisting Mrs. Sifferman were Mrs. Leon Carrier, Mrs. David Mutchery, and Mrs. J. B. McSwaney.

THERE HAS BEEN A lot of activity around the Birmingham Council, Knights of Columbus Hall, Southfield and 13 Mile roads, this month. Members and non-members were invited to attend an open house on Dec. 10 when a film on Buysville was shown and refreshments served.

Friday the group held its second fish fry. Members plan to continue this event on the second Friday of each month. On Sunday a large Christmas party was held for the children with a program of entertainment, refreshments and Santa Claus dispersing gifts and goodies. The Friday night dancing classes are something everyone looks forward to, with classes for beginners and advanced alike followed by refreshments and a social evening. Plans are now being completed for a gala New Year's party with dancing and a 1 a.m. buffet.

SANTA CLAUS, laden with goodies, will be calling at the homes in the Beverly Artesian area on Friday between 6 and 9 p.m. Residents will leave porch lights on to help him find his way.

Santa will also collect his letters when he makes his rounds. His helpers will assist him in choosing the best letter written by a girl and the best one from the boys. He has an extra gift for the two winners. William Landstrom, Robert Kratt, Marvin Lausen and Guy Bowman will assist Santa on that night.

Beverly Artesian also will have a Christmas house decorating contest. There will be seven winners, one in each block, to whom the judges will award a gift certificate on Wednesday night.

The Beverly - Greenfield Improvement Association will hold its annual Christmas Carol Sing underneath the big tree in Claire DuVal's back yard on Sunday at 7 p.m. The address is 19520 Lauderdale and the event is open to the public.
