Once Over Lightly

by IRMA N. DAVIS

Each year, it would seem, I wish you in rhyme,
A joyous and prosperous holiday time.
A greeting that comes not only from me,
But from all on our staff—on this we agree.

Publisher Paul Averill sends his wishes, too,
For the best of the season to each one of you
He's joined by Hank Hogan, who's second in line—
And authors a column that's usually near mine.

There's our managing editor who hastens to say
"That goes for me too in my 'Ken Weaverish' way."
His portrait is one that our readers meet
Whenever they get set to read "City Beat."

"A good Yule's in order," says Larry Eves
Who covers the city with gup and go.
"You can count me in too on that newspaper card."
Is the world from Ev Oen who writes of the arts.

"We hope that your day is happy, indeed," Says society editor Mary E. Mead.
She writes all the year about parties and fetes
And weddings and clubs and calendar dates.

Bill Thom has a photo right there in his lens
Of holiday joy for you and your friends.
"I picture that too," says one who is new
Her name? Ethel Simmons, who just joined our crew.

Dave Philpo adds voice to our little band,
With a sporting good wish for a Christmas that's grand,
There are so many more who work hereabouts—
But we just haven't room to report as they shout:

"A Happy Noel from all of us here,
May the season's good tidings b'ess you through the year,
Good health and good luck (and may nothing worse
Be directed at you than stuff like this verse.)

Dear Santa:

I am a good girl most of the time. Please bring me a toy stove and a toy sewing machine. I love you.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN Season Calls For Kindness To Animals

Cadet Flies Fighter

Naval Aviation Cadet William C. Bollinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse W. Bollinger of 1836 Kirkway Drive, Bloomfield Hills, is learning to fly a single-engine fighter aircraft in precision maneuvers at the Whiting Field Naval Auxiliary Air Station, Milton, Fla.

To the Editor:
As we celebrate this blessed season, we are reminded of the fact that Christ who could have been born in a cattle chow instead to be born in a stable surrounded by animals "the best of these."
We are reminded, too, that He came into this world, suffered and died that His great doctrine of justice and mercy might teach.
There's no cause that is more Godlike than that of animal welfare for it is a cause from which no one ever hopes to gain anything of material nature.

ST. FRANCIS of Assisi who is recognized by all faiths as the patron saint of animals lived in the dark ages of barbarism when the light of faith burned dimly. He helped to keep the light burning and today hundreds of years later the light of justice and mercy burns brightly in the humane society windows throughout the civilized world.
Kindness and mercy to all living creatures, not political theories, will bring world peace. How can we pretend to fight for benevolence in government while we praise and reward cruelty to helpless animals?
