

Messiah Choir To Broadcast Handel Classic

Christmas music in the form of Georg Friedrich Handel's famous oratorio MESSIAH will be featured Sunday on radio station WJR from 1 to 2:30 p.m.

For the 46th consecutive year, this immortal classic will be presented by the Independence, Missouri Messiah Choir. It is traditionally presented on nationwide radio as a Christmas gift from the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

The Independence Messiah Choir has given 66 performances of the famous Handel oratorio since the year 1916. The choir is accompanied by 32 instrumentalists selected from the Kansas City Philharmonic orchestra. They play the style favored by Handel himself 200 years ago.

The performance was originally presented November 17 in the 5,800-seat Conference Chamber of the auditorium, now headquarters building of the RLDS Church. This year's soloists are: Maxine Makas, soprano, New York; Mary Alice Wright, contralto, Flint, Mich.; Henry Anderson, tenor, Lamoni, Iowa; and Richard S. Schreiber, bass, Chicago, Ill. Conductor of the choir and orchestra is Franklin S. Weddle, music director for the RLDS Church.

More than 1,000 radio stations throughout the United States, Canada, Australia, the British West Indies and the Virgin Islands are carrying the MESSIAH this year. The congregations of the RLDS Church serving the Birmingham area are located at 1417 N. Main, Claxson (temporary meeting place) and 1817 N. Main, Royal Oak.
